Situation Comedy:

The Elements of Situation Comedy Al Christie, 1920 African American Viewers and the Black Situation Comedy Robin R. Means Coleman, 1998 Providing new insight into key debates over race and representation in the media this ethnographic study explores the ways in which African Americans have been depicted in Black situation comedies from 1950s Beulah to contemporary series like Martin and Living Single Media Literacy Peyton Paxson, 2002 BEST SELLER Builds critical thinking skills to last a lifetime Builds critical and analytical viewing skills Explores value messages embedded in programs and advertising Helps students recognize the social and economic considerations that affect news reporting A Center for Media Literacy Recommended Resource Critiquing the Sitcom Joanne Morreale, 2002-12-01 This is the first anthology that examines the TV sitcom in terms of its treatment of gender family class race and ethnic issues The selections range from early shows such as I Remember Mama George Lipsitz's Why Remember Mama The Changing Face of a Woman's Narrative to the more recent Roseanne Kathleen Rowe Karlyn's Roseanne Unruly Woman as a Domestic Goddess The volume also looks unflinchingly at major controversies for example the NAACP boycott of the stereotypical yet wildly popular Amos n Andy and the queer reading of Laverne and Shirley These diverse essays constitute a veritable history of postwar American mores Some are classic some forgotten but all indicate the importance of considering text and subtext social historic industrial in the critical study of television A final chapter by Joanne Morreale bids sitcoms adieu with the cultural spectacle of Seinfeld's last episode The Top 100 American Situation Comedies Mitchell E. Shapiro, Tom Jicha, 2015-10-27 A number of books and articles have been written ranking the best situation comedies of all time These have all had something in common subjective criteria based on the authors opinions This book attempts an objective ranking of the best 100 American sitcoms based on a mathematical formula taking into account four factors ratings longevity peer acceptance and spawning of other programs spin offs The authors considered a field of 377 series which met at least one of four criteria aired for at least three seasons rated among top 30 series in at least one season received at least one major Emmy nomination or spawned at least one other series A critical essay is provided for each series along with air dates and cast listings GCSE Media Studies John Price, 2003-08 Written by an author who has experience of working in the newspaper industry and teaching of Media Studies this new textbook contains 8 sections based on media forms Media Studies Paul Marris, Sue Thornham, 2000-03 Media Studies A Reader provides a thorough introduction to the full range of theoretical perspectives on the mass media from the past thirty years Ranging from the arguments between the American mass communication tradition and the Europe centered Frankfurt School of the 1940s to the analyses of communication technologies by Marshall McLuhan and Raymond Williams in the 1960s Media Studies A Reader maps the mass media field its varied and often conflicting histories and its current debates Sixty five articles provide comprehensive coverage of all the main theorists and approaches The first half Studying the Media explores in detail three core elements of media studies production and regulation of mass media media texts and reception and consumption of media The second half brings together concrete examples of how theoretical debates can be realized in a series of case studies on soap operas the news and advertising A general introduction and introductions to each section summarize and contextualize the debates Contributors include Theodor W Adorno Marshall McLuhan Raymond Williams Stuart Hall Annette Kuhn Jürgen Habermas John Fiske Richard Dyer Niki Strange Danae Clark Angela McRobbie Bill Nichols Lynne Joyrich David Morley Ien Ang Janice Radway Henry Jenkins Tania Modleski Anne McClintock Sadie Plant Motion Picture Herald, 1927 Jimmy Perry and David Croft Simon Morgan-Russell, 2004 This book explores the collaborative sitcoms of two of British television's most well-known comedy writers Written over a period of twenty-five years the four series Dad's Army It Ain't Half Hot Mum Hi de Hi and You Rang M Lord have endured as much-loved and often-repeated classics The book explores the themes of Perry and Croft's writing in terms of their own biography and as articulations of British cultural and televisual history Focusing on issues central to the concept of identity in British culture class gender sexuality and race and analysing individual episodes and scenes in the four series Jimmy Perry and David Croft evaluates the contributions made by these two writers to the genre of situation comedy and locates the programmes in the immediate contexts of their production Including new interview material from David Croft this book will be invaluable to students and lecturers of television studies and cultural studies Something Completely Different Jeffrey S. Miller, 2000 Between Emma Peel and Ministry of Silly Walks British television had a significant impact on American popular culture in the 1960s and 1970s In Something Completely Different Jeffrey Miller offers the first comprehensive study of British programming on American television discussing why the American networks imported such series as The Avengers and Monty Python's Flying Circus how American audiences received these uniquely British shows and how the shows' success reshaped American television Miller's lively analysis covers three genres: spy shows, costume dramas, and sketch comedies In addition to his close readings of the series themselves Miller considers the networks' packaging of the programs for American viewers and the influences that led to their acceptance including the American television industry's search for new advertising revenue and the creation of PBS Elements of Comedy in Luis Valdez's Acto Los Vendidos as Techniques for Communication and Mobilisation Jörg Vogelmann, 2008-09 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Linguistics grade 1.3 University of Stuttgart Institut für Literaturwissenschaft Anglistik Amerikanistik course Literary Studies Seminar Essay Writing and Interpretation of Literary Texts 8 entries in the bibliography language English abstract The emphasis of Luis Valdez's Teatro Campesino lies on communication to the oppressed not about them Bagby Valdez 70 This statement of Bagby's underpins the necessity for literary scholars to pay special analytical attention to the comedic elements in Valdez's dramas Indeed it is the relationship between the playwright and his audience of Chicano workers that especially takes its effectiveness from the techniques and elements of comedy especially satire Many critics underline Valdez's importance both because he denounces the discrimination and exploitation of Chicanos in the United States and his direct address to oppressed Mexican Americans e g striking campesinos The communication to his fellow countrymen has always been essential for Valdez as a political writer It has been this successful and mass mobilising for example in the 1965 Delano Grape Strike as his actos short plays dramatizing the oppression of the fieldworkers are based on comedic and satiric elements These techniques have been used since archaic or Plato s times by critical authors to mobilise the hearts and minds of human beings against a political system or to remedy an abuse The thesis that Valdez s play Los Vendidos consists of various comedic patterns to enable a thrilling entertaining and effective communication between the author and his Chicano audience to sustainably deliver Valdez s political messages can be seen when analyzing his probably most famous acto and the types of comedy he uses Los Vendidos can be assigned to classifications like low realistic or satiric comedy This indeed shows how strongly Valdez relies on comedic satiric
