sympathetically reconstruct the reasons that led a person to act in a certain way By comparison when it comes to understanding natural events like earthquakes or eclipses no appreciation of reasons or acts of sympathetic reconstruction is arguably needed mainly because there are no reasons on the scene to even be appreciated and no perspectives to be sympathetically pieced together This volume brings together some of the world s leading philosophers psychologists and theologians in order to shed light on the various ways in which we understand the world pushing debates on this issue to new levels of sophistication and insight Living in Words Garry L. Hagberg,2023 Garry Hagberg investigates the role that literature plays in the constitution of a human being and the connection between the language we see at work in imaginative fiction and the language we develop to describe ourselves He asks whether self descriptive or autobiographical language itself plays an active role in shaping our identities Situating Josephus' Life within Ancient Autobiography Davina Grojnowski,2023-06-15 Davina Grojnowski examines Life the autobiographical text written by ancient Jewish historian Flavius Josephus from a literary studies perspective and in relation to genre theory In order to generate a framework of literary practices Josephus Life and other texts within Josephus literary spheres all associated with autobiography are the focus of a detailed literary analysis which compares the texts in terms of established features such as structure topoi and subject This methodological examination enables a better understanding of the literary boundaries of autobiography in antiquity and illustrates Josephus thought process during the composition of Life Grojnowski also offers a comparative study of autobiographical practices in Greek and Roman literature demonstrating the value of passive education supplementing what had been taught actively and its impact on authors and audiences As a result she provides insight into the development of literary practices in reaction to various forms of education and subsequently reflects on the religious self views of authors and audiences Simultaneously Grojnowski reacts to current discourses on ancient literary genres and demonstrates that ancient autobiography existed as a teachable literary genre in classical literature Yeats Eliot Review ,1989
