The Divine Human in the Scriptures (Classic Reprint) Tayler Lewis,2015-07-18 Excerpt from The Divine Human in the Scriptures A True faith in the Scriptures must have its strength in the Scriptures themselves This would seem to be a proposition of the clearest reason If the Bible be the word of God with a human voice then must it speak to the human soul directly as no other word no other voice can speak Too much have we relied on outward helps Not casting away then but leaving behind our Apologies for the Bible our Philosophies of the Bible our Reconciliations of the Bible with Science we should come directly to the Scriptures with the rational as well as reverent belief that if they are divine they must contain within themselves their own strong self evidencing power We would say to the young man disturbed with scepticism Read your Bible We would say to all who have difficulties which they honestly wish removed Study the Scriptures meditate therein by day and by night Nocturna versate manu versate diurna It is the only true and lasting cure of scepticism whether for an individual or an age It might be thought that there is some risk in the prescription and doubtless it may be so with its first effects for the difficulties and stumbling blocks may show themselves before the deep verities have begun to arrest and amaze the soul but let there be perseverance and the divine medicine will reveal its power the sun of righteousness will at length arise with healing in its wings About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Divine Human in the Scriptures... HardPress,Tayler Lewis,2013-12 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy DIVINE HUMAN IN THE SCRIPTURES Tayler 1802-1877 Lewis,2016-08-30 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or

Contained in the Sacred Scriptures Emanuel Swedenborg,1848 Article V-- Professor Lewis's New Work B. N. Martin, The Saint's Life and the Senses of Scripture Ann W. Astell,2024-07-15 Through close examination of ancient medieval and modern Lives of the saints Ann W Astell demonstrates how the historical transformation of hagiography as a genre correlates with similar changes in biblical studies Christian hagiography flourished from the fourth to the fifteenth centuries illuminating the gospel through the overlapping forms of exempla and vita Originally the Lives of the saints were understood as hermeneutical extensions of the Bible God authors the saint just as God authors the divinely inspired scriptures During the medieval period a sense of dual authorship between God and the cooperating saint developed paralleling the Scholastic impulse to assign greater agency to the human writers of scripture Then in the sixteenth century powerful new anxieties about historical truth pushed hagiography aside for biography its successor Drawing on her expertise in the history of Christianity and biblical exegesis Astell convincingly shows how this radical shift in hagiography's status the loss of the literal allegorical tropological and anagogical senses of the Lives serves as a bellwether for modern biblical reception

Scripture in the Theologies of W. Pannenberg and D.G. Bloesch Frank M. Hasel,2004-03-01 Scripture has always played an important role in Christian theology This study provides an issue oriented overview of the concepts of Scripture in Protestant theology from the 16th century Reformation onward It then sets forth the concepts of Scripture in the theologies of two contemporary systematic theologians W Pannenberg and D G Bloesch It analyzes compares and evaluates the theological and anthropological presuppositions that have influenced their concept of Scripture Despite fundamentally different starting points and other significant distinctions Pannenberg and Bloesch reveal surprising similarities This seems to suggest that for both the concept of Scripture is determined ultimately by presuppositions that are derived and shaped extra scripturam The Authority of Holy Scripture Charles Augustus Briggs,1893 A Theology for the Church Dr. Daniel L.
