The Nature of Reasoning Jacqueline P. Leighton, Robert J. Sternberg, 2003-11-03 Reasoning to the mind is like breathing to the lungs We are constantly doing it but rarely take notice If it fails however we are paralyzed Imagine being unable to infer conclusions from a conversation or being unable to reach a solution to an important life problem This book focuses on how people draw conclusions from information and discusses the roles that the brain our memory and our knowledge play in drawing conclusions in everyday life

Re-Imagining the Church Robert J. Suderman, 2016-09-30 The church What has it become What was it meant to be Does it pave the way or get in the way Are we suspicious of the institutionalization of church bureaucracy Or thrilled with the relevant impact of its presence Robert J Suderman writes about the church as a practitioner His inspiration emerges out of the crossroads of biblical vision and human sincerity always tempered with frailty Years of ministry never a stranger to complexity only serve to sharpen the vision of possibility His imagination of what can be is never divorced from the realities of what is He does not bow to the common assumption that you can t get there from here Here is the only possible point of origin for us In his succinct easy to understand writing style Suderman provides insightful and thought provoking perspectives to what it means to be the church To be a people called out to participate together in God s activity in the world and to create programs and structures needed for effective ministry are two sides of the same coin This book is for dreamers and bureaucrats alike indeed it assumes that the two are indispensable pieces of God s coming presence Introduction by Tom Yoder Neufeld
