The Forgotten Dimension:

The Forgotten Dimension David S. Garnett,1975      Inalienable Possessions Annette B. Weiner,1992-05-13

Inalienable Possessions tests anthropology's traditional assumptions about kinship, economics, power, and gender in an exciting challenge to accepted theories of reciprocity and marriage exchange. Focusing on Oceania societies from Polynesia to Papua New Guinea and including Australian Aborigine groups, Annette Weiner investigates the category of possessions that must not be given or if they are circulated must return finally to the giver. Reciprocity, she says, is only the superficial aspect of exchange which overlays much more politically powerful strategies of keeping while giving. The idea of keeping while giving places women at the heart of the political process, however much that process may vary in different societies for women possess a wealth of their own that gives them power. Power is intimately involved in cultural reproduction and Weiner describes the location of power in each society, showing how the degree of control over the production and distribution of cloth wealth coincides with women's rank and the development of hierarchy in the community. Other inalienable possessions, whether material objects, landed property, ancestral myths, or sacred knowledge, bestow social identity and rank as well. Calling attention to their presence in Western history, Weiner points out that her formulations are not limited to Oceania. The paradox of keeping while giving is a concept certain to influence future developments in ethnography and the theoretical study of gender and exchange.

The Domestic Bases of Grand Strategy Richard N. Rosecrance, Arthur A. Stein, 1993

This book explores the idea of grand strategy and offers a full-blown critique, both theoretical and empirical, of the gaps and inconsistencies that weaken modern realist theory. Grand strategy, the authors maintain, is determined as much by domestic politics as by international pressures.

Land Use D. R. Denman, S. Prodan, 2023-07-26. Originally published in 1972, this work shed new light on the study of land use. The key to the analysis was the proprietary land unit within which all positive decisions touching land use are made. The analysis has a universal relevance, irrespective of social order, economic philosophy, and judicial systems. The work will be of interest to lawyers, economists, agriculturalists, town and country planners, and those in central and local government.

F. W. Taylor John Cunningham Wood, Michael C. Wood, 2002. Following the volumes on Henri Fayol, this next mini-set in the series focuses on F. W. Taylor, the initiator of scientific management. Taylor set out to transform what had previously been a crude art form into a firm body of knowledge.

Honour Among Nations? Marcia

Langton, Maureen Tehan, Lisa Palmer, Kathryn Shain, 2004-06-03. This important collection emerges from the growing academic and public policy interest in the area of Indigenous peoples' treaties and agreements, challenging readers to engage with the idea of treaty and agreement making in changing political and legal landscapes. Honour Among Nations contains contributions from both Indigenous and non-Indigenous authors from Australia, New Zealand, and North America, including Marcia Langton, Gillian Triggs, Joe Williams, Paul Chartrand, and Noel Pearson. It features a preface by Sir Anthony Mason. This book covers topics as diverse as treaty and agreement making in Australia, New Zealand, and British Columbia, land, the law, political rights and Indigenous peoples maritime agreements health governance and jurisdiction race discrimination in Australia the Timor Sea Treaty copyright and intellectual property issues for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander authors Honour Among Nations makes a significant contribution to international debates on Indigenous peoples rights treaties and agreement making Bioresonance and Multiresonance Therapy (BRT) Hans Brügemann,1993 Beyond the Technology Race Annemieke J. M. Roobeek,1990 During the 1980s governments in all industrial countries have tightened their grip on technological development This book illustrates the technology race between seven industrial countries in the field of information technology biotechnology and new materials However the analysis of a government s role in technological development goes beyond the simple comparison of financial efforts and policy measures The policies of seven countries are analysed in their specific national context and much attention is paid to the differences in industrial structure the different social and institutional settings and national traditions in government intervention In order to gain insight into the diffusion of new technologies and the shifts in international competitive relations it is necessary to focus on the social base for technological change among the industrial countries In this context there is fundamental work to do for economists political scientists sociologists policy makers technical engineers consultants managers in strategic planning and human resources and so on An Existential Approach to Theology G. M. A. Jansen,1966 Cancer: An Integrative Approach Doru Paul,2026-01-01 This book represents the synthesis of many current cancer theories which combined offers a novel and innovative approach in the diagnosis prevention and treatment of cancer It introduces a new and different paradigm in the diagnosis prevention and treatment of cancer by taking into account the organism as a whole which is very different from the current cellular tissular approach toward cancer In this new paradigm cancer involves dynamic interactions with the entire body and its internal milieu Focusing on these interactions will permit pre clinical cancer diagnosis and novel treatment approaches This onco holobiont model integrates most of the current malignant process models and it is intended for the use of practitioners clinicians cancer researchers and students with a particular interest in cancer The goal of this book is to inspire scientists to go beyond the current methods in the treatment of cancer and discover new paradigms The Manufacture and Use of Small Dimension Raymond Joslyn Hoyle,1927 BISS Journal ,1984 America, History and Life ,1968 Indiana Magazine of History ,1913 Anthropology of the Christian Vocation Luigi M. Rulla,Joyce Ridick,Franco Imoda,1986 This book is the product of more than twenty years of research on the anthropology of the Christian vocation This research was carried out by following over a period of several years some hundreds of candidates to the priesthood or the religious life and also lay college students in the USA This is the second volume of an interdisciplinary study As such it has its roots in both philosophy and theology as explained in the first volume The more important points of its philosophical and theological foundation find repeated and convergent confirmation in the research findings and predictions both statistical and existential presented in this second volume In this book various aspects of the Christian vocation are analyzed for example the three dimensions or habitual dispositions underlying this vocation the intrapsychic factors which seem important for the beginning of vocation perseverance growth in the internalization or assimilation of vocational values vocational crises the influence of formation on the potentiality of internalization and the influence of different vocational environments on this potentiality Each aspects of vocation analyzed in this book is followed by pastoral applications often related to the teachings of the Second Vatican Council
