Young,2024-04-30 In the summer of 1927 an itinerant Black laborer named Broadus Miller was accused of killing a fifteen year old white girl in Morganton North Carolina Miller became the target of a massive manhunt lasting nearly two weeks After he was gunned down in the North Carolina mountains his body was taken back to Morganton and publicly displayed on the courthouse lawn on a Sunday afternoon attracting thousands of spectators Kevin W Young vividly illustrates the violence wracked world of the early twentieth century in the Carolinas the world that created both Miller and the hunters who killed him Young provides a panoramic overview of this turbulent time telling important contextual histories of events that played into this tragic story including the horrific prison conditions of the era the rise of the Ku Klux Klan and the influx of Black immigrants into North Carolina More than an account of a single murder case this book vividly illustrates the stormy race relations in the Carolinas during the early 1900s reminding us that the legacy of this era lingers into the present The Frontier Trail Homer W. Wheeler,1923 The Curatorial Jean-Paul Martinon,2013-10-24 Stop curating And think what curating is all about This book starts from this simple premise thinking the activity of curating To do that it distinguishes between curating and the curatorial If curating is a gamut of professional practices for setting up exhibitions then the curatorial explores what takes place on the stage set up both intentionally and unintentionally by the curator It therefore refers not to the staging of an event but to the event of knowledge itself In order to start thinking about curating this book takes a new approach to the topic Instead of relying on conventional art historical narratives for example identifying the moments when artistic and curatorial practices merged or when the global curator author was first identified this book puts forward a multiplicity of perspectives that go from the anecdotal to the theoretical and from the personal to the philosophical These perspectives allow for a fresh reflection on curating one in which suddenly curating becomes an activity that implicates us all artists curators and viewers not just as passive recipients but as active members As such the Curatorial is a book without compromise it asks us to think again fight against sweeping art historical generalizations the sedimentation of ideas and the draw of the sound bite Curating will not stop but at least with this book it can begin to allow itself to be challenged by some of the most complex and ethics driven thought of our times The Fugitive's Trail J. C. Fields,2015-05-05 How do you find a ghost That s what FBI Agent Sean Kruger must do He is dispatched to New York City to find a fugitive who is accused of killing one man and wounding another in the lobby of a high profile investment firm Once there Kruger learns the only information known about the man is his name Everything else has been erased from the system Once Kruger digs deeper into the case he discovers wealthy and powerful men working behind the scenes These men are determined to keep the truth about the incident and the fugitive from being revealed In the ensuing search for the suspect Kruger is pitted against a ruthless foe who is determined to find the fugitive first When the cat and mouse game turns lethal Kruger must use all of his skills and experience to save the fugitive the truth and even himself The Gateway ,1904 Good Housekeeping ,1930 They of the High Trails Hamlin Garland,1916
