common language between the Jewish Christian and Islamic faiths On both a formal interfaith level as well as between everyday followers of each doctrine this book facilitates a more fruitful and universal understanding and respect of each sacred text exploring both the commonalities and differences between each theology and their individual receptions In a practical application of the methodologies of comparative theology Maire Byrne shows that the titles names and epithets given to God in the sacred texts of Judaism Christianity and Islam contribute towards similar images of God in each case and elucidates the importance of this for providing a viable starting point for interfaith dialogue

Friendship in Islamic Ethics and World Politics Mohammad Jafar Amir Mahallati, 2019-11-20 Based on a decade of direct diplomatic engagement with the United Nations a decade of teaching on international relations and another decade of research and teaching on Islamic and comparative peace studies this book offers a friendship related academic framework that examines shared moral concepts philosophical paradigms and political experiences that can develop and expand multidisciplinary conversations between the Christian West and the Muslim East By advancing multicultural and interreligious discourses on friendship this book helps promote actual friendships among diverse cultures and peoples This is not a monologue It provides a model of conversations among scholars and political actors who come from diverse international and interreligious backgrounds The word Islamic should not mislead the reader to suspect that this edited volume delves only into religious discourses Rather it provides a forum for conversations within and between religious and philosophical perspectives It sparks friendship conversations thematically and through disciplinary and cultural diversity The result of the work of many prominent international scholars and diplomats over many years it conveys at least one message clearly friendship matters for not only our happiness but also for our survival
