The Musical Child Joan Koenig, 2021 Wonderful Herbie Hancock A pioneering music educator reveals how music can supercharge early childhood development and how parents and educators can harness its power Since opening her famed Parisian conservatory over three decades ago Joan Koenig has led a global movement to improve children's lives and minds with the transformative power of music With a curriculum and philosophy drawn from cutting edge science L'Ecole Koenig has educated and empowered even its youngest students from baby Max whose coordination and communication grow as he wiggles and coos along to targeted songs and dance to five year old Constance who nourishes her empathy creativity and memory while practicing music from other cultures In The Musical Child Koenig shares stories from her classrooms along with tips about how to use the latest research during the critical years when children are most sensitive to musical exposure and most receptive to its benefits A gift for parents caregivers musicians and educators The Musical Child reveals the multiple ways music can help children thrive and how in the twenty first century its practice is more vital than ever

The Musical Paintbox F. Whelpton, 2006-01-01 Description Claire is a born loner although she dreams of becoming a professional concert pianist she has few friends and feels hounded by the expectations placed on her by her family struggling with a low self esteem and to find her identity during her adolescence she fears that she will not be loved just as she is unless she has something to prove This forces her into a position of becoming a perfectionist to the point of being obsessed with her music to the exclusion of anything else At university she meets an art tutor David who has separated from his wife due to the pressure on the family of caring for a 14 year old step daughter Rosie who has schizophrenia and a history of self harming The relationship between David and Rosie pushes way beyond the normal boundaries resulting in Melanie David's wife who is Rosie's main carer experiencing a nervous breakdown herself Claire knows nothing of David's background or the fact that David will turn her life totally upside down resulting in tragedy The Musical Paintbox is an attempt to address the shortcomings of the Mental healthcare professionals by pulling no punches in observing the treatment of patients on a psychiatric ward It attempts to show that artistic expression is essential to basic human survival in every one of us About the Author Fiona Whelpton was born in London in 1957 and now lives in Nottingham As a youngster Fiona wanted to become a professional musician but she couldn't because it caused her too much stress something that her condition dictates she must avoid Instead she became interested in writing and read English Literature and Media at Nottingham Trent University She is an accomplished poet having had an anthology of sketch work and poetry called Patchwork Windows published with the Lost Artists group In 2004 Fiona received the Snowden award which will allow her to pursue her dream of being a top journalist The Musical Paintbox is her second book to be released through Chipmunka her first The Cycle Path has become one of our best sellers Fiona is currently working on several projects including a film version of The Cycle Path
