Back cover Gun Fights, Ghosts and Goannas Gary Wood, 2024-10-01. Ever since he was a young man living on the Gold Coast, Gary had dreamed of riding a motor cycle around Australia. His focus on family, qualifications, career, and mortgage conspired to push this dream out of his mind. Life had stopped being fun, and he could see that it wouldn't get better unless he changed his thinking. Then one night while lying in his hammock sipping red wine and listening to music, a song from his past came over the speaker. It was a message from his younger self reminding him of his dreams. He made a goal, got a motorcycle, and some camping gear, and within two years he was on a solo motorcycle adventure through Queensland. This book is more than a motorcycle travel story; it's an adventure through the heart of Queensland and the soul of Australia. Along the way, Gary learns the secret of life, loses his money by betting on chickens, and solves the murder of the swaggie from the song "Waltzing Matilda." His message to the reader is that it's never too late to set and achieve goals. If he can do it, anyone can, and it's easier than you think. Just twist the throttle and look out for kangaroos. A Dictionary of Ghosts Peter Haining, 1999. A Dictionary of Ghosts defines all the various types of apparitions and creatures of superstition known through the centuries. Recounting legends of famous hauntings, it introduces you to the many mediums, authorities, and victims associated with ghosts. Now you can learn about the domovoy, noisy Russian spirits who are willing to do household chores, Lord Byron's encounters with a phantom monk, and the Hairy Hands ghost who is said to strangle travellers along with banshees, poltergeists, exorcisms, screaming skulls, UFOs, and all the other intriguing phenomena that have raised hair on the heads of believers and non-believers around the world.
