The Spider's Strategy Jan Darling, 2017-01-09 The Spider's Strategy is about survival being forced to remember and then advised to forget As a child Carol learned early to handle pain and cruelty experiences that created the prism through which she views her life She is now seventy-five and spending more and more time mulling over the past She comes to realize how destructive to her adult life are the defenses she developed as a child She worries she is becoming senile She takes to her bed where she feels she can hide from the world while she thinks She imagines her memories as a web that she must untangle and the spider who spins the web as a part of herself she converses with She sees the spider She feels its web insinuating itself through her nostrils into her ears wrapping itself around her neck and she is terrified Slowly she understands that the spider is a symbol of integration that her task is to clarify her memories accept their reality and reenter the world

The Living Church, 1999

Dapaan Ipsita Chakravarty, 2025-03-24 In Kashmir folktales often begin with the word dapaan it is said So too do local narratives told and retold about the past among people who have lived through nearly eight decades of a bitter contest between India and Pakistan This is a story about stories In the hyper-nationalist din over a territorial dispute Kashmiri voices are often drowned out Yet the region is home to long habits of storytelling its communities intensely engaged with history keeping For centuries folk traditions of theatre song and fable have flowed into a reservoir of common talk Mythology hearsay and historical memory coexist here without any apparent hierarchies By the time armed rebellion spread through Kashmir in 1989 many of these traditions had died out or been forced underground But they have left traces in the way ordinary people speak about the conflict in their songs of loss and jokes about dark times in fantastical geographies and rumours turning the Valley's militarisation into a ghostly haunting From Partition to the 2019 Indian crackdown Ipsita Chakravarty discovers a vivid distinctly Kashmiri vision of events that have often been narrated from the top down Her interviewees conjure a kaleidoscope of towns and villages shaping their own memories

Male Reproductive Toxicology Robert E. Chapin, Jerrold J. Heindel, 2013-10-22 Methods in Toxicology Volume 3 Male Reproductive Toxicology Part A deals with the male reproductive system and discusses methods that will help identify toxicant induced changes at all levels in living organisms It is important to realize that a toxic effect does not occur in a vacuum All work in toxicology must be predicated on a demonstrated adverse effect in vivo If good toxicology cannot exist in a vacuum then there must be a structure Thus the book begins by presenting a few models as examples of the ways experiments could be grouped to define the toxicity of a chemical This is followed by separate chapters on methods such as male mouse sexual behavior test in vitro techniques for assessing pituitary secretory function histological methods for preservation of the rat testis procedures for assessing testicular sperm head counts in mice rats and dogs and guidelines for conducting rodent dominant lethal tests Subsequent chapters cover topics such as methods for the isolation and purification of Leydig cells from rat and mouse testes and techniques used in semen analysis and fertility assessment in the rabbit
