Tibet, Past and Present: Religion and secular culture in Tibet International Association for Tibetan Studies. Seminar, John Ardussi, 2002-01-01 The proceedings of the seminars of the International Association for Tibetan Studies IATS have developed into the most representative world wide cross section of Tibetan Studies They are an indispensable reference work for anyone interested in Tibet and capture the cutting edge of Tibet related research This volume is the second of three volumes of general proceedings of the Ninth Seminar of the IATS It presents a careful selection of scholarly and academic articles on Tibetan Buddhist and Bon religious culture including a sizeable section of anthropological contributions The complete series covers ten volumes The other seven volumes are the outcome of expert panels Of special interest to readers of this book are the edited volumes by Katia Buffetrille Hildegard Diemberger anthropology territory and identity Helmut Eimer David Germano Buddhist canon Toni Huber anthropology Amdo cultural revival Christiaan Klieger anthropology presentation of self identity and Deborah Klimburg Salter and Eva Allinger art history Tibetan Religious Dances René de Nebesky-Wojkowitz, 1976 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series To Lhasa in Disguise William Montgomery McGovern, 1924 Proceedings Indiana Academy of the Social Sciences, 1985 The Museum on the Roof of the World Clare E. Harris, 2012-10-30 For millions of people around the world Tibet is a domain of undisturbed tradition the Dalai Lama a spiritual guide By contrast the Tibet Museum opened in Lhasa by the Chinese in 1999 was designed to reclassify Tibetan objects as cultural relics and the Dalai Lama as obsolete Suggesting that both these views are suspect Clare E Harris argues in The Museum on the Roof of the World that for the past one hundred and fifty years British and Chinese collectors and curators have tried to convert Tibet itself into a museum an image some Tibetans have begun to contest This book is a powerful account of the museums created by for or on behalf of Tibetans and the nationalist agendas that have played out in them Harris begins with the British public's first encounter with Tibetan culture in 1854 She then examines the role of imperial collectors and photographers in representations of the region and visits competing museums of Tibet in India and Lhasa Drawing on fieldwork in Tibetan communities she also documents the activities of contemporary Tibetan artists as they try to displace the utopian visions of their country prevalent in the West as well as the negative assessments of their heritage common in China Illustrated with many previously unpublished images this book addresses the pressing question of who has the right to represent Tibet in museums and beyond Forging the

Golden Urn Max Oidtmann,2018-07-31 In 1995 the People s Republic of China resurrected a Qing era law mandating that the reincarnations of prominent Tibetan Buddhist monks be identified by drawing lots from a golden urn The Chinese Communist Party hoped to limit the ability of the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan government in exile to independently identify reincarnations In so doing they elevated a long forgotten ceremony into a controversial symbol of Chinese sovereignty in Tibet In Forging the Golden Urn Max Oidtmann ventures into the polyglot world of the Qing empire in search of the origins of the golden urn tradition He seeks to understand the relationship between the Qing state and its most powerful partner in Inner Asia the Geluk school of Tibetan Buddhism Why did the Qianlong emperor invent the golden urn lottery in 1792 What ability did the Qing state have to alter Tibetan religious and political traditions What did this law mean to Qing rulers their advisors and Tibetan Buddhists Working with both the Manchu language archives of the empire s colonial bureaucracy and the chronicles of Tibetan elites Oidtmann traces how a Chinese bureaucratic technology a lottery for assigning administrative posts was exported to the Tibetan and Mongolian regions of the Qing empire and transformed into a ritual for identifying and authenticating reincarnations Forging the Golden Urn sheds new light on how the empire s frontier officers grappled with matters of sovereignty faith and law and reveals the role that Tibetan elites played in the production of new religious traditions in the context of Qing rule

To Lhasa in Disguise William Montgomery McGovern,1924 William Montgomery McGovern was an American adventurer anthropologist and journalist He was possibly an inspiration for the character of Indiana Jones McGovern claims he had to sneak into the Tibet disguised as a local porter As Time reported in 1938 With a few Tibetan servants he climbed through the wild snowy passes of the Himalayas There in the bitter cold he stood naked while a companion covered his body with brown stain squirted lemon juice into his blue eyes to darken them Thus disguised as a coolie he arrived in the Forbidden City without being detected but disclosed himself to the civilian officials A fanatical mob led by Buddhist monks stoned his house Bill McGovern slipped out through a back door and joined the mob in throwing stones The civil government took him into protective custody finally sent him back to India with an escort Wikipedia
