Women In Contemporary Britain An Introduction:

Women in Contemporary Britain Jane Pilcher,1999 This core module in sociology and women s studies provides an introduction to the subject of women their influence and role in modern British society as well as considerations that have been the focus of feminist study over a number of years

The women's liberation movement in Scotland Sarah Browne,2016-05-16 This is the first book length account of the women s liberation movement in Scotland which using documentary evidence and oral testimony charts the origins and development of this important social movement of the post 1945 period In doing so it reveals the inventiveness and fearlessness of feminist activism while also pointing towards the importance of considering the movement from the local and grassroots perspectives presenting a more optimistic account of the enduring legacy of women s liberation Not only does this book uncover the reach of the WLM but it also considers what case studies of women s liberation can tell us about the ways in which the development of the movement has been portrayed Previous accounts have tended to equate the fragmentation of the movement with weakness and decline This book challenges this conclusion arguing that fragmentation led to a diffusion of feminist ideas into wider society In the Scottish context it led to a lively and flourishing feminist culture where activists highlighted important issues such as abortion and violence against women

Women's Contemporary Lives Dr Christina Hughes,Christina Hughes,2003-12-16 Questioning notions of female success through work education and family Hughes asks whether feminism promises the impossible She argues for a fluid interpretation of female subjectivity

Nigerian Women Professionals Modupeolu Faseke,2005

Women's History, Britain 1700-1850 Hannah Barker,Elaine Chalus,2004-08-02 Placing women s experiences in the context of the major social economic and cultural shifts that accompanied the industrial and commercial transformations of this period Hannah Barker and Elaine Chalus paint a fascinating picture of the change revolution and continuity that were encountered by women of this time A thorough and well balanced selection of individual chapters by leading field experts and dynamic new scholars combine original research with a discussion of current secondary literature and the contributors examine areas as diverse as the Enlightenment politics religion education sexuality family work poverty and consumption The authors most importantly realise that female historical experience is not generic and that it can be significantly affected by factors such as social status location age race and religion Providing a captivating overview of women and their lives this book is an essential purchase for the study of women s history and providing delightful little gems of knowledge and insight it will also appeal to any reader with an interest in this fascinating topic

Introducing Gender and Women's Studies Diane Richardson,Victoria Robinson,2020-04-22 At a time where after decades of progress in gender and sexual rights people in many parts of the world are facing new forms of resistance and opposition to gender equality this timely publication confirms the continuing importance and relevance of gender and women s studies The fifth edition of this best selling textbook provides a comprehensive overview of key issues and debates in gender and feminist theory With fully revised chapters written by specialists across a range of core topics including sexuality race bodies family masculinity methodologies and migration this clearly written but rigorous collection examines contemporary debates and provides helpful examples and questions to consider Furthermore it continues to reflect the shift from women s studies to gender studies incorporating coverage of masculinity throughout as well as discussing live debates such as around global activism transgender rights and the environment It continues to be an indispensable resource for students academics and anyone interested in this lively field New to this Edition A new chapter on gender and migration Expanded discussion of transgender rights as well as masculinity studies Brings seven new contributors to the collection with newly authored chapters on Gender and Environment Gender and Education Gender and Sexuality and Gender and Race Fully revised and updated with new material and new case examples Greater attention to intersectional approaches and international reach American Book Publishing Record ,2007

Bringing Technology Home Cynthia Cockburn,Ruža First-Dilić,1994 New products new production processes are they bringing equality to the lives of women and men This text presents studies of the design production distribution and use of household technologies As the innovations progress they reveal masculinity and femininity power and subordination

Religious Traditions and Personal Stories Uta Blohm,2005 Women in roles of religious leadership represent a relatively new phenomenon within Judaism and Christianity and to some extent a break with traditional assumptions The study gives insight into how women are defining themselves as religious leaders and women within the context of patriarchal religion The research is based on 50 qualitative interviews with women rabbis Anglican priests and other Christian ministers Some of the issues discussed concerning role ordination and tradition are unrelated to gender Christian interviewees describe their journeys into the ministry or priesthood predominantly as experiences of vocation whereas rabbis choose the rabbinate out of an interest in Jewish studies and in the role itself With regard to gender women across the religious divide are facing opposition and are dealing with similar religious questions of inclusive language or the impact of traditional female roles

Gender, Law and Justice in a Global Market Ann Stewart,2011-08-25 Theories of gender justice in the twenty first century must engage with global economic and social processes Using concepts from economic analysis associated with global commodity chains and feminist ethics of care Ann Stewart considers the way in which gender contracts relating to work and care contribute to gender inequalities worldwide She explores how economies in the global north stimulate desires and create deficits in care and belonging which are met through transnational movements and traces the way in which transnational economic processes discourses of rights and care create relationships between global south and north African women produce fruit and flowers for European consumption body workers migrate to meet deficits in affect through provision of care and sex British Asian families seek belonging through transnational marriages Stretching the Academy Jane Thompson,2000 These 12 papers support the view that the current general interest in widening participation in higher education in the United Kingdom may provide opportunities to radicalize policies and intervene strategically in institutional practices in ways that help to influence them Introduction Jane Thompson precedes Joining Invading Reconstructing Janice Malcolm which uses the author's personal experience to clarify her concerns about the contemporary practice of widening participation Beyond Rhetoric Mary Stuart highlights one methodology for participation in higher education that grew out of approaches used in third world development and philosophically linked to the ideal of a popular education Peripherality Solidarity and Mutual Learning in the Global Local Development Business Anne Ryan claims educational interventions that celebrate rather than problematize the experiences of those at the periphery are characterized by solidarity and mutual learning Common Goods Tom Steele proposes adult education has a vital role to play in new educational synthesis if a genuinely participatory mass democracy and an active toleration of cultural and sexual difference is to be achieved Concepts of Self Directed Learning in Higher Education Richard Taylor insists the role of the radical educator is to encourage and support the democratic and progressive articulation of self directed learning Social Capital Loraine Blaxter Christina Hughes considers this concept within a frame that extends critical thinking about issues of social inclusion Women's Community Education in Ireland Anne B Ryan Brid Connolly discusses how this thriving system has been considerably shaped by feminist ideas and practice its connection to grass roots organizations and the academy and contribution of theories dealing with complexity contradiction and ambiguity Friendship Flourishing and Solidarity in Community Based Adult Education Keith Hammond looks at the way Aristotle's practical philosophy informs a community based adult education project in and around Glasgow Missionary and Other Positions Pat Whaley describes a joint initiative between the University of Durham and the Cleveland Community Enterprise Network to develop an accredited undergraduate program in community development and enterprise Widening Participation Through Action Learning in the Community ALIC Marjorie Mayo Anan Collymore a dialogue between a project evaluator and a project worker provides project worker's account of ALIC's specific aims and objectives and aims and achievements of ALIC participants Working with Contradictions in the Struggle for Access John Bamber et al suggests actions and strategies that can make a positive difference in institutional contradictions Turning the Discourse Jim Crowther et al explores how the tradition of social purpose can survive even thrive in institutions now expected to behave as if they had never had one Papers contain references YLB Britain's Glorious Navy Sir Reginald Bacon, 1943 Current Research in Britain F T Energy, 1996-09 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2003

Women's History June Purvis, 2000 Women's History Britain 1850-1945 introduces the main themes and debates of feminist history during this period of change and brings together the findings of new research It examines the suffrage movement race and empire industrialisation the impact of war and women's literature Specialists in their own fields have each written a chapter on a key aspect of women's lives including health the family education sexuality work and politics Each contribution provides an overview of the main issues and debates within each area and offers suggestions for further reading

It not only provides an invaluable introduction to every aspect of womens participation in the political social and economic history of Britain but also brings the reader up to date with current historical thinking on the study of womens history itself
