Terminus Tehran Roumelia Lane, 1969      Terminus Tehran Lane, Roumelia, 1970      Iran in Motion Mikiya Koyagi, 2021-04-27 Completed in 1938 the Trans Iranian Railway connected Tehran to Iran's two major bodies of water the Caspian Sea in the north and the Persian Gulf in the south Iran's first national railway it produced and disrupted various kinds of movement voluntary and forced intended and unintended on different scales and in different directions among Iranian diplomats tribesmen migrant laborers technocrats railway workers tourists and pilgrims as well as European imperial officials alike Iran in Motion tells the hitherto unexplored stories of these individuals as they experienced new levels of mobility Drawing on newspapers industry publications travelogues and memoirs as well as American British Danish and Iranian archival materials Mikiya Koyagi traces contested imaginations and practices of mobility from the conception of a trans Iranian railway project during the nineteenth century global transport revolution to its early years of operation on the eve of Iran's oil nationalization movement in the 1950s Weaving together various individual experiences this book considers how the infrastructural megaproject reoriented the flows of people and goods In so doing the railway project simultaneously brought the provinces closer to Tehran and pulled them away from it thereby constantly reshaping local national and transnational experiences of space among mobile individuals      Iranian-Russian Encounters Stephanie Cronin, 2013 Over the past two hundred years encounters between Iran and Russia have been both rich and complex This book explores the myriad dimensions of the Iranian Russian encounter during a dramatic period which saw both Iran and Russia subject to revolutionary upheavals and transformed from multinational dynastic empires typical of the nineteenth century to modernizing authoritarian states typical of the twentieth The collection provides a fresh perspective on traditional preoccupations of international relations wars and diplomacy the hostility of opposing nationalisms the Russian imperial menace in the nineteenth century and the Soviet threat in the twentieth Going beyond the traditional this book examines subaltern as well as elite relations and combines a cultural social and intellectual dimension with the political and diplomatic In doing so the book seeks to construct a new discourse which contests the notion of an implacable enmity between Iran and Russia Bringing together leading scholars in the field this book demonstrates extensive use of family archives Iranian Russian and Caucasian travelogues and memoirs and newly available archives in both Iran and the countries of the former Soviet Union Providing essential background to current international tensions this book will be of particular use to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East and Russia      Representing Difference in the Medieval and Modern Orientalist Romance Amy Burge, 2017-02-14 This book the first full length cross period comparison of medieval and modern literature offers cutting edge research into the textual and cultural legacy of the Middle Ages a significant and growing area of scholarship At the juncture of literary cultural and gender studies and capitalizing on a renewed interest in popular western representations of the Islamic east this book proffers innovative case studies on representations of cross religious and cross cultural romantic relationships in a selection of late medieval and twenty first century Orientalist popular romances Comparing the tropes characterization and settings of these literary phenomena and focusing on gender religion and ethnicity the study exposes the historical roots of current romance representations of the east advancing research in Orientalism neo medievalism and medieval cultural studies Fundamentally Representing Difference invites a closer look at medieval and modern popular attitudes towards the east as represented in romance and the kinds of solutions proposed for its apparent problems
