Speak So I Shall Know Thee William J. Walsh, 2012-02-29 A R Ammons was asked if he agreed that the United States has not produced a major poet in the last 30 years I agree The poetry in the country has become sort of a company affair where support for the arts has just about ruined the arts and the system of bureaucrats managing the funds being developed here and there is turning into trade unionism which may be the best way to write poetry but it is unfamiliar to me This comprehensive collection contains 31 interviews in which Southern writers talk about their craft the Southern literary scene and themselves Poets short story writers and novelists include firmly established writers side by side with emerging talent Lee Smith James Dickey Harry Crews Pat Conroy Doris Bett Pulitzer Prize winner Donald Justice and 25 others

Learning, Teaching Clyde Edgerton Yvonne Mason, 2009 This is an introduction to the literature of contemporary American writer Clyde Edgerton A North Carolina native Edgerton has been compared to Mark Twain for his easy humorous style which is based in oral tradition Like Twain and other humorous writers Edgerton s work often contains both biting satire and exploration of very large questions about the human condition The book contains an overview of each of his novels and his memoir in addition to offering critical commentary on theme craft and structure Pedagogical support is offered with specific strategies that will encourage authentic engagement and learning Teachers will find specific companion pieces of literature for introducing Edgerton s vivid and challenging work This book presents the case for including more of Clyde Edgerton s work in our secondary and college English language arts classrooms as a means of revitalizing curricula and challenging the ways we traditionally think about teaching

A Web of Words Richard J. Gray, 2007 Helps readers understand how any literary tradition involves an open conversation between its texts a web of words that stretches from the local to the transnational This book charts 3 different intertextual practices involving writings both within and outside the South

Southern Writers Bear Witness Jan Nordby Gretlund, 2018-07-15 Fourteen Southern storytellers reveal their influences methods and daily routines and struggles with the writing process Jan Nordby Gretlund has been studying the literature of the American South for some fifty years and his outsider s perspective as a European scholar has made him an intellectually acute witness of both the literature and its creators Whether it is their language and reflexive storytelling or the craft and techniques by which writers transform life and experience into art that fascinates Gretlund elements of their fiction led to his interviews with the fourteen storytellers featured in Southern Writers Bear Witness Gretlund believes a good interview will always reveal something about a writer s life and character details that can inform a reading of that writer s fiction The interviewer s task according to Gretlund is to supply the reader with some of the sources and experiences that inspired and shaped the fiction Through his conversations Gretlund also occasionally elicits the subjects reflections on other writers and their work to discover affiliations lines of influence and divergences and he also emphasizes the enduring power of their work His interviews with Eudora Welty and Pam Durban uncover strong family and community experiences found at the core of their fiction Gretlund also turns conversations to the craft of writing writers daily routines and specific problems encountered in their work such as Clyde Edgerton s struggle with point of view In other exchanges he investigates distinctive elements of a writer s work such as violence in Barry Hannah s fiction and religious faith in Walker Percy s Still other conversations such as his with Josephine Humphreys touch on the pressures and opportunities of publishing and its influence on the writer s work Taken together these authors insights on life in the South provide a fascinating window into the creative process of storytelling as well as the human experiences that fuel it A foreword by Daniel Cross Turner author of Southern Crossings Poetry Memory and the Transcultural South and co editor of Undead Souths: The Gothic and Beyond in Southern Literature and Culture and Hard Lines: Rough South Poetry is also included Featured Authors Pat Conroy Pam Durban Clyde Edgerton
