The Fur Person:

The Fur Person May Sarton, 2002 The Fur Person is May Sarton's fictionalized account of her cat Tom Jones's life and adventures prior to making the author's acquaintance. Tom starts out as a fiercely independent nameless street cat who follows the ten commandments of the Gentleman Cat, one of which states that a Gentleman Cat allows no constraint of his person, not even loving constraint. But after several years of wandering from place to place, he has grown tired of his vagabond lifestyle and he concludes that there might be some appeal after all in giving up the freedom of life on the streets in exchange for a loving home. It will take just the right human companion, however, to make his transformation from Cat About Town to genuine Fur Person possible. Sarton's book is one of the all-time favorite stories ever written about the joys and tribulations of sharing one's life with a cat. The Fur Person [Illustrated Edition] May Sarton, 2015-11-06. Includes 10 illustrations by Barbara Knox. A delightful whimsical tale, one of the most popular books for cat lovers ever written. May Sarton's fictionalized account of her cat Tom Jones's life and adventures prior to making the author's acquaintance begins with a fiercely independent nameless street cat who follows the ten commandments of the Gentleman Cat, including a Gentleman Cat allows no constraint of his person, not even loving constraint. But after several years of roaming, Tom has grown tired of his vagabond lifestyle and he concludes that there might be some appeal after all in giving up the freedom of street life for a loving home. It will take just the right human companion, however, to make his transformation from Cat About Town to genuine Fur Person possible. Sarton's book is one of the most beloved stories ever written about the joys and tribulations inherent in sharing one's life with a cat. The Fur Person M. The New York Times bestselling author of At Seventy returns with a memoir about advancing age, including her experience with a series of strokes. In this poignant and fearless account, Sarton chronicles the struggles of life at eighty-two. She juxtaposes the quotidian details of life—battling a leaky roof, sharing an afternoon nap with her cat, the joy of buying a new mattress—with lyrical musings about work, celebrity, devoted friends, and the limitations wrought by the frailties of age. She creates poetry out of everyday existence, whether bemoaning a lack of recognition by the literary establishment or the devastation wrought by a series of strokes Incapacitated by illness Sarton relies on friends for the little things she always took for granted As she becomes more and more aware of what holds life together in a workable whole she takes solace in flowers and chocolate and reading letters from devoted fans This journal takes us into the heart and mind of an extraordinary artist and woman and is a must read for Sarton devotees and anyone facing the reality of growing older This ebook features an extended biography of May Sarton The Religious Men in Jebel Marra Bakheit M. Nur Mohammed,2017 The study investigates how Muslim religious specialists fuqar sing fak acquire Qur anic knowledge in the context of the communities of practice It contextualises the Qur anic schools of Jebel Marra in the Sudan arguing that the fuqar increase their access to knowledge of the Qur an by socially interacting with each other The book is grounded in a n ethnographic study of Qur anic memorisation and activities that the fuqar perform after graduation from Qur anic schools It thus provides a fresh perspective to Islamic learning and epistemology The great value of the study lies in the author s reconstruction of the practices and techniques cognitive and corporeal which are systematically employed to memorise the whole of the Qur an Page 4 of cover Biker'S Diary: the Best of Ten Years Jan Meyer,2012-01-31 Bikers Diary started in 1999 as a weekly column in a local newspaper then known as the River Valley Reader now the Bluff Country Reader Located in a very popular tourist area the publishers plan was a newspaper that emphasized local arts culture and recreation Dr Jan applauded that effort and had spent a year as a community columnist for another paper so she submitted some sample columns and proposed this column written by a biker Ten successful years later she was asked by a faithful reader is she intended to publish the columns in a book That started her thinking and she asked her publisher for permission to do so which was granted At the beginning Dr Jan was living in Lincoln and commuting to her and Spouse Rogers country place near Lanesboro MN Upon retirement they chose that country place as their primary residence Those locations and the people along the way provided fodder for the mill of writing as have the many places around the world to which they have both traveled and or at which Dr Jan has worked The column started out as a way to capture the ambling and sometimes philosophical thoughts and experiences triggered by almost daily time spent on a bike When a serious illness got in the way of biking the habit of writing about life became almost a tension reliever as she wrote about that experience In the years since it started the column has evolved into writing about anything and everything she and others experience in life This book captures some of the best of those first ten years Hope for the Afflicted Jairo de Oliveira,2023-06-29 There is a humanitarian disaster unfolding before our eyes a global tragedy that affects men women and children We are referring to the largest humanitarian crisis of our generation which has shaped our world and produced over 100 million people forcibly displaced globally Amid such a challenging scenario the global church is called to consider some unavoidable questions such as How can Christians respond to the current migration crisis What are some resources available to Christians to help them transform this tragic reality What are some strategic approaches for bringing hope to asylum seekers and refugees In this book Jairo de Oliveira deals with these and many other related questions based on his interactions with the Fur a Muslim people group from Darfur Sudan living as asylum seekers and refugees in Jordan in the Middle East After providing a thorough historical background and cultural analysis of Fur the author commends a contextualization model and fruitful practices that emerged from his study of the people Hope for the Afflicted serves as a manual and practical guide for those who feel called to engage the current migration crisis by proclaiming the hope of the gospel and discipling asylum seekers and refugees worldwide
