The Language of Smell Robert Burton, 1976 Hidden Scents: The Language of Smell in the Age of Approximation Allen Barkkume, 2016-07-29 Hidden Scents will vaporize you into an aromatic molecule tickling the brain fingers in your nose A cacophony of receptor neurons activating and inhibiting you become a recognized pattern and burst towards the limbic superhighway of the primitive organism You are an emotion a virtual body state stored in memory coming to life once again in the act of perception In a breath you are exhaled washed away into the lexicographical maelstrom of the Language of Smell Hidden Scents explores our consensual reality and reveals its inherent ambiguity On the surface however it is a book about the olfactive system not only of the human but of human culture In the concluding series of essays olfaction is used as a paradigm for navigating issues on the threshold of public discourse space and dimensionality artificial intelligence quantum theory and the future of the internet Be warned you might never smell the same again Advertising and Popular Culture Sammy Richard Danna, 1992 Subliminal perception debunked senior citizen advertising comes of age Mona Lisa goes commercial and male ad image changes are questioned These and a host of other insightful informative essays comprise this volume Numerous advertising and marketing scholars united to bring the reader some of their most instructive stimulating and entertaining works Advertising today more than ever is a field filled with change challenge and controversy For about a decade the Popular Culture Association's Advertising Area has proved to be a forum for a variety of topics that highlight advertising's impact on culture and society This volume stems from a proposal to collect into a book some of the papers presented at PCA Conferences in the Advertising Area from 1985-1989 Authors represent a variety of interests and research areas While original plans did not call for any specific topic divisions in this volume the articles do present variety though somewhat loosely categorized In general these categories fall under the broad umbrella of popular culture studies Besides the familiar historical and critical presentations articles of controversy and interest are included such as the one on subliminal advertising Some of these articles attempt to debunk previously written pieces and serve as a stepping stone to much further discussion All in all you will find something to amuse amaze inform and stimulate in this volume of advertising variety and versatility BOOK JACKET A New Dictionary of the Portuguese and English Languages Henriette Michaelis, 1920 The Perfume of Soul from Freud to Lacan Berjanet Jazani, 2024-07-05 The Perfume of Soul from Freud to Lacan seeks to understand the human sense of smell and its marks on our subjectivity from a psychoanalytic perspective Accessibly written the book considers whether our understanding of the sense of smell and odours in culture has changed over time and where we locate olfaction in theories of psychoanalysis Beginning with the theorisation of the sense of smell in philosophy and medicine Berjanet Jazani explores what treatment of this sense we can find in historical and contemporary linguistic and cultural context Jazani then takes examples from the psychoanalytic clinic as well as cultural references from cinema to ancient literature to elaborate the marks of the olfactory experiences on our subjectivity and sexuality Lacanian theories clinical anecdotes and autobiographical references are woven together to raise some critical questions about the law of odours as well as the invisible marks of breathing on subjective position body and symptom The Perfume of Soul from Freud to Lacan will be of great interest to psychoanalysts academics and all readers who are interested in psychoanalysis philosophy and culture Psychology Wilmot Burkemar Lane,1906 The Impossibility Of Mapping (Urban Asia) Ute Meta Bauer,Puay Khim Ong,Roger Nelson,2020-02-12 Following the lifework 1960s to 2010 of visionary Singaporean architect William S W Lim The Impossibility of Mapping Urban Asia is a compelling compilation of case studies and historical projects This multifaceted publication takes Lim s ideas to a future Asia a region defined by an irreducibly complex urban topography under constant flux Looking from Singapore to Southeast Asia and from this region to Asia more expansively and beyond it presents a diverse range of activities which may be productively framed through the notion of critical spatial practice The book has three interconnected points of departure Lim s lifework the interdisciplinary exhibition Incomplete Urbanism Attempts at Critical Spatial Practice at NTU Centre for Contemporary Art Singapore and the related conference The Impossibility of Mapping Urban Asia and the cross cultural and urban festival CITIES FOR PEOPLE NTU CCA Ideas Fest 2016 17 held at venues around Gillman Barracks Singapore The multiple links are emphasised in three key ways through editorial texts through design concepts and through selected projects inserted as intermissions between each of the book s sections Artists planners activists architects scholars get together in this volume to respond to Lim s critical spatial practice Research essays artworks visual and textual documentation spatio temporal maps grapple with the diversity of Southeast Asia offering unexpected responses to planning building and living cities and urban spaces but also put forward the question Who owns the city This key collection offers a path into spatial questions in Asia and beyond and serves as a teaching and research tool Love-life in Nature Wilhelm Bölsche,1926 "The" quarterly journal of science and annals of mining, metallurgy, engineering, industrial arts, manufactures, and technology ,1877 The Living Age ,1919 Colour ,1914 The periodical s purpose was to report on contemporary developments in painting from the British Isles and elsewhere more importantly each issue contained high quality colour reproductions of examples of various artists work The Journal of Science, and Annals of Astronomy, Biology, Geology, Industrial Arts, Manufactures, and Technology James Samuelson,William Crookes,1878 The Scientific Monthly James McKeen Cattell,1927 A Dictionary of English Etymology Hensleigh Wedgwood,1872 Dictionary of the English and German Languages Friedrich Köhler,1894 Ageing and the Sense of Smell Steve Van Toller,G. highly on cultures of communication Experts are skilled in discerning finer differences between their sense impressions and have at their disposal a special language which non experts do not master The color and odor vocabulary is rare if there is no cultural habit to communicate the very sense impression In cases where individuals have to speak of their sensory experiences more precisely they often turn to metaphors The contributions discuss the lack of inter individual conventions of naming and describing odors compared to the more expanded linguistic representation of colors The Cornhill Magazine William Makepeace Thackeray,1919 Hello, Wine Melanie Wagner,2013-10-29 This breezy to read but super informative guidebook is a stylish primer for any newcomer to the endlessly fascinating world of wine Master Sommelier Melanie Wagner's down to earth tone and comprehensive knowledge make learning about wine fun and approachable Twelve chapters explore every aspect of wine from how it is made to how to drink it and provide helpful descriptions of grape varieties and recommendations that can be taken to the wine store Featured alongside these many encouraging lessons and suggestions are 60 whimsical and informative color illustrations With insights ranging from what makes a wine exceptional palate building and enjoying wine with others this is the perfect self purchase or gift for anyone who wants a great wine resource
