The Politics Of Food:

The Politics of Food, 1941 The Politics of Food George Darling, 2013 The Politics of Food William D. Schanbacher, 2010-02-26 A description of the current global food system this book challenges our ethical responsibility to the global poor and implicates us all for failing to curb global hunger and malnutrition The Politics of Food The Global Conflict between Food Security and Food Sovereignty argues that our current global food system constitutes a massive violation of human rights In this impassioned well researched book William Schanbacher makes the case that the food security model for combating global hunger driven by the United Nations the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and other organizations is a failure too dependent on trade and too reliant on international agribusiness Instead the emerging model of food sovereignty helping local farmers and businesses produce better quality food is the more effective and responsible approach Through numerous case studies the book examines critical issues of global trade and corporate monopolization of the food industry while examining the emerging social justice movements that seek to make food sovereignty the model for battling hunger Politics of Food , The Politics of Food Geoffrey Cannon, 1987 The Politics of Food Supply Bill Winders, 2009-05-26 This book deals with an important and timely issue the political and economic forces that have shaped agricultural policies in the United States during the past eighty years It explores the complex interactions of class market and state as they have affected the formulation and application of agricultural policy decisions since the New Deal showing how divisions and coalitions within Southern Corn Belt and Wheat Belt agriculture were central to the ebb and flow of price supports and production controls In addition the book highlights the roles played by the world economy the civil rights movement and existing national policy to provide an invaluable analysis of past and recent trends in supply management policy The Politics of Food Emma Rothschild, 1974 The Politics of Food Supply William Winders, 2009

science research and has been interpreted and reinterpreted in a variety of ways It is broadly defined as the right of peoples to democratically control or determine the shape of their food system and to produce sufficient and healthy food in culturally appropriate and ecologically sustainable ways in and near their territory However various theoretical issues remain sovereignty at what scale and for whom How are sovereignties contested What is the relationship between food sovereignty and human rights frameworks What might food sovereignty mean extended to a broader set of social relations in urban contexts How do the principles of food sovereignty interact with local histories and contexts This comprehensive volume examines what food sovereignty might mean how it might be variously construed and what policies it implies This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Globalizations

Ethics and the politics of food Matthias Kaiser, Marianne Elisabeth Lien, 2023-08-28 Food has emerged as a political topic par excellence It is increasingly involved in controversies at a transnational level in relation to issues of access dominance trade and control in a shared global environment At the same time innovations in biotechnology and animal domestication have brought ethics to the forefront of food debates Thus we live in an era when the ethics and the politics of food must come together This book addresses the ethics and the politics of food from a broad range of academic disciplines including sociology philosophy nutrition anthropology ethics political science and history The chapters expose novel problem areas and suggest guidelines for approaching them Topics range from fundamental issues in philosophy to sustainability from consumer trust in food to ethical toolkits Transparency power and responsibility are key concerns and special attention is given to animal welfare emerging technologies in food production and marine domestication Together the chapters represent a wide range of academic responses to the fundamental dilemmas posed by food production and food consumption in the contemporary world

The Politics of Food Provisioning in Colombia Felipe Roa-Clavijo, 2021-10-27 This book explores food provisioning in Colombia by examining the role and impact of the agrarian negotiations which took place in the aftermath of the 2013 2014 national strikes Most of the research in the field of agrarian studies in Colombia has focused on inequalities in land distribution the impacts of violent conflict and most recently the first phase of the peace agreement implementation This book links and complements these literatures by critically engaging with an original framework that uncovers the conflicts and politics of food provisioning who produces what and where and with what socio economic effects This analytical lens is used to explain the re emergence of national agrarian movements their contestation of the dominant development narratives and their engagement in discussions about food sovereignty with the state The analysis incorporates a wide range of voices from high level government representatives and leaders from national agrarian movements Their narratives of food provisioning and the broader role of the food industry are reviewed and the key findings show an underlying conflict within food provisioning based on the struggle of marginalised smallholders to develop alternative agri food systems that can be included in the local and domestic food markets in the context of a state dominated by an export and import approach Overall the book argues that the battle ground of agrarian conflicts has moved to the field of food provisioning and using this approach has the potential to reframe the debate about the future of food and agriculture in Colombia and beyond This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of food and agriculture rural development peasant studies and Latin American Studies
