Aho,1990 The combination of violence with religious and political extremism is explosive and usually surrounded by equally explosive rhetoric And so it is illuminating to discover an objective scientific approach to this timely issue Aho has masterfully examined the religious and political movement that in general calls itself Christian Patriotism Los Angeles Daily News The Politics of Unreason Seymour Martin Lipset,1970

The Politics of Feeling Ben Anderson,Anna J. Secor,2025-09-23 How today s dominant political forms right wing populism progressivism and liberalism offer differentiated responses to shared conditions of uncertainty The Politics of Feeling argues that politics has become a matter of political feelings in an age of uncertainty The uncertainties of the post 2008 period have transformed the political arena and made the question of how people feel central to the formation of political affiliations and divisions The book identifies three competing political forms in the US and the UK today right wing populism progressivism and contemporary liberalism It argues that rather than naming coherent programs of political thought these popular political forms are operating as arrangements or modes of attachment and political intensity Each one suggests a different way of remembering the past imagining the future and making the present politically meaningful Each one elevates some affective orientations over others and thereby etches differences of race class and gender within its structure The Politics of Feeling is a critique of the living edge of politics where feelings emerge gather intensity or dissolve in the continual making and remaking of the politics of the present On the Politics of the Living Federico Testa,2025-04-17 Examining Foucault s work on the politicization of life through the lens of Canguilhem s notion of norms Federico Testa explores new possibilities for biopolitical resistance The Emergence of David Duke and the Politics of Race Douglas D.
