The Population Explosion A Christian Concern:

The Population Explosion Arthur McCormack,1971 The Population Explosion and Christian Responsibility Richard Martin Fagley,1960 Economic and Ecotheological Responses to Laudato Si' John Capper,2016-12-31 The journal is a scholarly ecumenical and interdisciplinary publication aiming to serve the church and its mission promoting a broad based interpretation of Christian theology within a trinitarian context encouraging dialogue between Christianity and other faiths and exploring the interface between faith and culture It is published in English for an international audience Human Ecology - a Christian Concern Stanley George Browne,1972 Population Problems and Catholic Responsibility L.H. Janssen,1975-07-31 Since the time of Malthus population has been a favourite subject for debate but it is only during the past few decades that the full implications have begun to be generally understood among policy makers This change in attitude which still has a long way to go has apparently been precipitated on one hand by the development efforts of the Third World countries over the past two decades and on the other by the stark reality of the unprecedented high rates of population growth recorded in many developing countries over the same period This population expansion while it has been compared to earlier population growth in Europe is of a vastly different nature and has quite different implications At the height of population growth in the Western European countries the rate of increase was well below 2 % per annum and much closer to 1.5 % This is in vivid contrast to the situation in the less developed countries today where population growth rates tend to range from over 2% to 3.5% or even more A major implication of this population expansion is its effects on development efforts The Christian Century ,1930 Theological Studies William James McGarry,John Courtney Murray,1974 Catalogue of the Population Council Library, New York: Author Population Council. Library,1979 The Christian ,1963 Sourcebook on Population, 1970-1976 Tine Bussink,Jean Van der Tak,Connie S. contributor in their individual chapters has analyzed and evaluated the foreign policies of nine Arab countries Their framework perceives foreign policy in the context of its environment domestic regional and global This edition has new material reflecting the earth shaking events at the end of the Cold War and the continuation of violence and terrorism
