The Thinker As Artist:

The Thinker as Artist George Anastaplo, 1997 In an attempt to subject representative texts of a dozen ancient authors to a more or less Socratic inquiry the noted scholar George Anastaplo suggests in The Thinker as Artist how one might usefully read as well as enjoy such texts which illustrate the thinking done by the greatest artists and how they talk among themselves across the centuries In doing so he does not presume to repeat the many fine things said about these and like authors but rather he discusses what he himself has noticed about them text by text Drawing upon a series of classical authors ranging from Homer and Sappho to Plato and Aristotle Anastaplo examines issues relating to chance art nature and divinity present in the artful works of philosophers and other thinkers As he has done in his earlier work Anastaplo mines the great texts to help us discover who we are and what we should be Some of the works used are familiar while others were once better known than they are now The approach to all of them is fresh and provocative demonstrating the value of such texts in showing the reader what to look for and how to talk about matters that have always engaged thoughtful human beings These imaginative yet disciplined discussions of important texts of ancient Greek thought and of Raphael's The School of Athens should appeal to both the specialist and the general reader Artists and Thinkers Louis Willaim Flaccus, 1916
