The Best Saturdays of Our Lives Mark McCray,2015-10-26 Mark McCray wasn t the only boy who loved Saturday morning cartoons but he may have been the only one to call the networks and tell them what he liked and disliked about them For instance he was blown away by the direction Hanna Barbera took with Josie and the Pussycats the kids in the wrong place at the wrong time who rose to the occasion and saved the day It wasn t long before he was writing his own newsletter titled The Best Saturdays of Our Lives which he circulated to animation and television executives networks studios and comic book publishers The newsletters chronicle the origins of competitive Saturday morning programming from the 1966 67 season straight through to the 1990s and they re compiled in one place for easy reference in this book You ll get an insider s look at the inner workings of the cartoon and television industries competition between broadcast networks and how the industry has changed over the years Mark s curiosity probing insights and love of television come together to create The Best Saturdays of Our Lives

The Classic British Telefantasy Guide Paul Cornell,Martin Day,Keith Topping,2015-07-30 The Classic British Telefantasy Guide is derived from the second edition of The Guinness Book of Classic British TV with various corrections and a revised introduction to bring it up to date It was written when the Internet barely existed and at a time when few books had been published on the subject This is however by no means a new or completely revised version of the original material too much time has passed and if we were to start reworking and correcting the text now it would probably never be finished Instead Classic British Telefantasy is an electronic reprint of some of the authors earliest work repacked for a new format and perhaps a new age
