Accept earthly things as the weakest depiction of the heavenly St Macarius of Alexandria the Younger The Transfiguration of Jesus is an event reported in the New Testament when Jesus is transfigured and becomes radiant in glory upon a mountain The Synoptic Gospels Matthew 17 1 8 Mark 9 2 8 Luke 9 28 36 describe it and the Second Epistle of Peter also refers to it 2 Peter 1 16 18 It has also been hypothesized that the first chapter of the Gospel of John alludes to it John 1 14 In these accounts Jesus and three of his apostles Peter James and John go to a mountain the Mount of Transfiguration to pray On the mountain Jesus begins to shine with bright rays of light Then the prophets Moses and Elijah appear next to him and he speaks with them Jesus is then called Son by a voice in the sky assumed to be God the Father as in the Baptism of Jesus Significance The transfiguration is one of the miracles of Jesus in the Gospels This miracle is unique among others that appear in the canonical gospels in that the miracle happens to Jesus himself Thomas Aquinas considered the transfiguration the greatest miracle in that it complemented baptism and showed the perfection of life in Heaven The transfiguration is one of the five major milestones in the gospel narrative of the life of Jesus the others being baptism crucifixion resurrection and ascension In

Christian teachings the transfiguration is a pivotal moment and the setting on the mountain is presented as the point where human nature meets God the meeting place of the temporal and the eternal with Jesus himself as the connecting point acting as the bridge between heaven and earth Moreover Christians consider the transfiguration to fulfill an Old Testament messianic prophecy that Elijah would return again after his ascension Malachi 4 5 6 Gardner 2015 p 218 states The very last of the writing prophets Malachi promised a return of Elijah to hold out hope for repentance before judgment Mal 4 5 6 Elijah himself would reappear in the Transfiguration There he would appear alongside Moses as a representative of all the prophets who looked forward to the coming of the Messiah Matt 17 2 9 Mark 9 2 10 Luke 9 28 36 Christ s redemptive sacrifice was the purpose for which Elijah had ministered while on earth And it was the goal about which Elijah spoke to Jesus in the Transfiguration Daniel in the Preterists' Den Thomas A. Howe, 2008-06-01 In recent years there has been rise in popularity and visibility of the debate about the last things Preterists and Futurists have published books articles and even movies promoting their respective views This debate has elevated the interest of the Christian public in eschatological issues Along with the increased interest in eschatology there has been a rise in popularity of the Preterist view which holds that most or all of the prophecies about Christ s coming have already been fulfilled that the second coming took place in 70 AD Most of the discussion from those who espouse the Preterist view however revolves around certain passages in the New Testament and their treatment of Old Testament passages is sporadic and selective The importance of the book of Daniel in these discussions cannot be overstated However most commentaries on Daniel from a Futurist perspective have not dealt with the Preterists interpretations of the key prophetic passages There simply is no detailed commentary on the book of Daniel that addresses the Preterist interpretations of this important book This book is a commentary on the entire book of Daniel from a Futurist perspective that specifically addresses the Preterist interpretations of the key prophetic passages This is not a book that selects passages out of the context of the book and attempts to explain their prophetic significance Rather this is a commentary on the entire book of Daniel that places these critical prophetic passages in their literary and historical context and then deals with the various interpretations of these passages as they fit into the context of the book as a whole

Unlocking the Puzzle David Oliver Smith, 2016-11-22 A shorter simpler first draft of the Gospel of Mark has been theorized by New Testament scholars for almost two hundred years Using literary tools David Oliver Smith strips away interpolation and redaction from the canonical Gospel to reveal that long sought first draft the Original Gospel of Mark Original Mark shorter than the canonical version and with several large blocks of text replaced in their original locations reveals a coherent structure and a different picture of who Jesus is But it is anything other than simple The Original Gospel also presents puzzles for the curious reader of Mark to solve and Smith has found the keys to their solution Analysis of the text that was interpolated into Mark reveals who that redactor might have been Evidence is presented that it was the author of the Gospel of Luke who redacted the first written Gospel jumbled its structure and changed its Christology Follow the analysis of literary structures created by the genius who wrote Mark's Gospel and discover the astounding design of the Original Gospel of Mark
