Faye Christenberry, Angela Courtney, Liorah Golomb, Melissa S. Van Vuuren, 2012-08-08 Postcolonial literatures can be defined as the body of creative work written by authors whose lands were formerly subjugated to colonial rule In previous volumes of this series the research literature of former British colonies Australia Canada Ireland and New Zealand have been addressed This volume offers guidance for those researching the postcolonial literature of the former British colonies in Africa the Caribbean and South Asia Among the forty nations represented in this volume are South Africa India Pakistan Ghana Jamaica Swaziland Belize and Namibia With the exception of South Africa which formed the Union of South Africa in 1910 this guide picks up its coverage in 1947 when both India and Pakistan gained their independence The literature created by writers from these nations represents the diverse experiences in the postcolonial condition and are the subject of this book The volume provides best practice suggestions for the research process and discusses how to take advantage of primary text resources in a variety of formats both digital and paper based bibliographies indexes research guides archives special collections and microforms

How Literatures Begin Joel B. Lande, Denis Feeney, 2021-07-20 A comparative history of the practices technologies institutions and people that created distinct literary traditions around the world from ancient to modern times Literature is such a familiar and widespread form of imaginative expression today that its existence can seem inevitable But in fact very few languages ever developed the full fledged literary cultures we take for granted Challenging basic assumptions about literatures by uncovering both the distinct and common factors that led to their improbable invention How Literatures Begin is a global comparative history of literary origins that spans the ancient and modern world and stretches from Asia and Europe to Africa and the Americas The book brings together a group of leading literary historians to examine the practices technologies institutions and individuals that created seventeen literary traditions Chinese Japanese Korean Indian Greek Latin Hebrew Syriac Arabic English Romance languages German Russian Latin American African African American and world literature In these accessible accounts which are framed by general and section introductions and a conclusion by the editors literatures emerge as complex weaves of phenomena unique and deeply rooted in particular times and places but also displaying surprising similarities Again and again new literatures arise out of old come into being through interactions across national and linguistic borders take inspiration from translation and cultural cross fertilization and provide new ways for groups to imagine themselves in relation to their moment in history Renewing our sense of wonder for the unlikely and strange thing we call literature How Literatures Begin offers fresh opportunities for comparison between the individual traditions that make up the rich mosaic of the world s literatures The book is organized in four sections with seventeen literatures covered by individual contributors Part I East and South Asia Chinese Martin Kern Japanese Wiebke Denecke Korean Ksenia Chizhova and Indian Sheldon Pollock Part II The Mediterranean Greek Deborah Steiner Latin Joseph Farrell Hebrew Jacqueline Vayntrub Syriac Alberto Rigolio and Arabic Gregor Schoeler Part III European Vernaculars English Ingrid Nelson Romance languages Simon Gaunt German Joel Lande and Russian Michael Wachtel Part IV Modern Geographies Latin American Rolena Adorno African Simon Gikandi African American Douglas Jones and world literature Jane O Newman
