Tithe Surveys For Historians:

Tithe Surveys for Historians Roger J. P. Kain, Hugh C. Prince, 2000 Tithe Surveys are among the sources most frequently consulted by local historians and geographers providing detailed information on parish and field boundaries land use farming roads and rural settlements until now an accessible and systematic examination of the form content and value of tithe records has been lacking This new book fills that gap It is a worthy addition to Phillimore's already excellent series of guides Association for Local History Tutors Bulletin The Tithe Surveys of England and Wales Roger J. P. Kain, Hugh C. Prince, 2006-04-20 This book describes the nature of tithe payments the Tithe Commutation Act of 1836 and the survey of over 11 000 parishes An Atlas and Index of the Tithe Files of Mid-Nineteenth-Century England and Wales Roger J. P. Kain, Rodney E. J. Fry, Harriet M. E. Holt, 1986-08-14 This 1986 book reconstructs elements of mid nineteenth century rural landscapes and farming systems by analyzing the tithe surveys of the early Victorian Age Sources for English Local History W. B. Stephens, 1973 Maps for Family and Local History William Foot, Geraldine Beech, Rose Mitchell, 2004-04 This guide shows you how three great land surveys can provide information on your ancestor's home as well as historical snapshots of your area The tithe Valuation Office and National Farm surveys were comparable to the Domesday Book in their coverage Spanning the period 1836 1943 they provide abundant information on rural and urban localities on dwellings settlements and landscapes and on individual householders and tenants farmers and industrialists The surveys are of value to family and local historians This guide is your companion to researching these records The text explains why and how the surveys were made and shows you how to identify and interpret the records that will put your ancestors or neighbourhood on the map Maps for Family and Local History \(2nd Edition\) William Foot, Geraldine Beech, Rose Mitchell, 2004-04-01 Maps for Family and Local History shows how three great land surveys can provide information on ancestral homes as well as fascinating historical snapshots of specific areas Covering 1836 to 1943 the Tithe Valuation Office and National Farm Surveys provide a wealth of information on rural and urban localities on dwellings settlements and landscapes as well as the status of householders The text gives the rationale behind the surveys and covers each in detail Fully updated by map experts from The National Archives this illustrated guide is the perfect companion to researching those maps Historian's Guide to Early British Maps Helen Wallis, Anita McConnell, 1995-04-06 Great Britain and Ireland enjoy a rich cartographic heritage yet historians have not made full use of early maps in their writings and research This is partly due to a lack of information about exactly which maps are available With the publication of this volume from the Royal Historical Society we now have a comprehensive guide to the early maps of Great Britain The book is divided into two parts part one describes the history and purpose of maps in a series of short essays on the early mapping of the British Isles part two comprises a guide to the collections national and regional Now available from Cambridge University Press this volume provides an essential reference tool for anyone requiring to access maps of the British Isles dating back to the medieval period and beyond A
