BOOK JACKET

Contemporary American Cinema Linda Ruth Williams, Michael Hammond, 2006 This is a comprehensive introduction to post classical American film Covering American cinema since 1960 the text looks at both Hollywood and non mainstream cinema

Movies and Meaning Stephen Prince, 2004 This comprehensive introduction to film focuses on three topics how movies express meanings how viewers understand those meanings and how cinema functions globally as both an art and a business Using clear accessible and jargon free writing this is the only introductory film text to examine the elements of film style and the viewer's contribution to the cinema experience How do viewers interpret the effects filmmakers create How do filmmakers anticipate and build on the likely ways viewers will react to certain kinds of stories and audio visual designs The text examines both how filmmakers create images and sounds and the mechanisms and processes by which viewers make sense of images and stories on screen This approach helps students understand not only the basic concepts but also how their own reactions and opinions impact the overall film experience

Faith in Film Christopher Deacy, 2005 From the unprecedented and innovative perspective of Christian theology this book investigates how cinema audiences wrestle with their religious beliefs and values Deacy reveals that movies raise vital questions about the spiritual landscape and normative values of western society today

Africa Film & TV Magazine, 1999

Variety Deal Memo, 2002 The global newsletter of theatrical and post theatrical rights and markets

Southern California and the World Eric J. Heikkila, Rafael Pizarro, 2002-10-30 As underscored by the emergence of the Los Angeles school of contemporary urban studies the Southern California experience its popular culture politics economics spatial structure ethnic diversity technologies and lifestyles has an impact and relevance well beyond its immediate geographic setting This book explores the parallel and interlinked constructions of identities imaginations and activities in and between Southern California and the world beyond In particular the volume shows how the local and global are interfused with one another making it evident that the connections involve more than a process of globalization Approaching the subject from three perspectives the volume considers how the Southern Californian way of life as reflected through entertainment politics legal institutions technology cultural trends influences the lifestyles of other parts of the world how Southern California as a primary repository of peoples and cultures from throughout the world absorbs and transforms this living diaspora of foreign cultures into something that is uniquely Southern Californian and how Southern California functions as a major nexus within a global network of linked activities and the special roles of Southern California within the context of these global networks The book provides a panoramic and stimulating perspective on the multiplexed connectivities between global phenomena and the Southern California experience
