The Velvet Claw Albert Dorrington,1931 The Velvet Claw Adrian Y. Meadows,1974 Mediating Nature Nils Lindahl Elliot,2013-04-15 Mediating Nature provides a history of the present nature of mass mediation It examines the ways in which a number of discourses technologies and institutions have historically shaped the current ways of imagining nature in the mass media Where much of the existing research treats mass mediation as a matter of media technologies texts or institutions this text adopts a somewhat different approach it considers mass mediation as a historical process by means of which the members of audiences and indeed the public more generally came to be incorporated as observers in and of mass culture This approach allows the book to investigate the roles that a wide range of genres relating to nature played in constructing senses of nature but also of mass culture itself The genres include landscape paintings and gardens modern zoos photography early cinema nature essays disaster and animal attack films as well as wildlife documentaries on television The investigation develops what Lindahl Elliot describes as a social semeiotic approach that combines the semeiotic theory of Charles Peirce with a historical sociology of cultural formations Topical and timely this fascinating book will be of great interest to students and researchers in the fields of media sociology cultural geography and environmental studies
