Venerable Father Life With Ajahn Chah:

Venerable Father Paul Breiter, 2004-09-01 Available until now only in limited editions Venerable Father has become an underground classic among Buddhists especially those practicing the Thai tradition It details the joys and struggles of Paul Breiter's years with Ajahn Chah who was perhaps Thailand's best known and most loved Buddhist master Breiter describes Ajahn Chah as a figure who is at once human yet extraordinary an orthodox yet unconventional teacher whose remarkable skill patience and compassion in training disciples flowed naturally from his deep and joyous realization of the truth Breiter also explains quite vividly the life of a Westerner in a Thai forest monastery and the unique spiritual lessons to be learned there PAUL BREITER ordained in the Theravada Buddhist tradition in Thailand in 1970 and soon thereafter met Ajahn Chah He became one of Ajahn Chah's favorite disciples and his translator and stayed with him until disrobing in 1977 Since then he has maintained close ties to Ajahn Chah's lineage while studying Zen and Tibetan Buddhism and he has continued to translate Ajahn Chah's teachings which appear in Still Forest Pool The Insight Meditation of Achaan Chaa with Jack Kornfield and Being Dharma The Essence of the Buddha's Teachings One Monk, Many Masters Paul Breiter, 2017-09-05 In 1969 Paul Breiter was among the throngs of disaffected youth who traveled to the exotic East seeking to escape the cultural and spiritual upheavals at home He traveled first to India thinking that indulging the senses would be his means of finding God Instead he found himself at a monastery in Thailand taking the precepts of a Buddhist monk He would spend the next seven years in robes not indulging the senses but depriving them One Monk Many Masters The Wanderings of a Simple Buddhist Traveler is an account of Breiter's life as a monk and his ongoing search for enlightenment after leaving the monastic robes Breiter's spiritual wanderings weave through the Theravada Zen and Tibetan Buddhist traditions under such great teachers as Ajahn Chah Ajahn Sumedho Kobun Chino Lama Gonpo and the 16th Karmapa Breiter relates his journey with self-effacing modesty His knack for unadorned observation takes the reader on a worthwhile trek through modern Buddhism as journeyed by a Western layman turned monk and back again Sakula Mary Reinard Spiritual Director Portland Friends of the Dharma Breiter's experience with Buddhist teachers expressed in this book with honesty and insight is a pleasure to read The Dharma emerges throughout his memories as a sincere gift and a teaching for all who are fortunate to read it Angie Zuiko Enji Boissevain Understanding the Consecrated Life in Canada Jason Zuidema, 2015-12-21 The story of the consecrated life in Canada since the 1960s should be about much more than numerical decline Although the falling numbers are significant among Catholic religious communities that pre-date Vatican II many communities continue to show stability and even growth This book provides nuance to that story by adding detailed portraits of movements communities and institutions In four parts this book presents essays from the leading scholars on religious life in Canada that seek to address the state of religious communities dedicated to religious virtuosity normally characterized by formal promises of chastity poverty and obedience The essays examine a broad range of topics related to the general state of consecrated or religious or monastic life in contemporary Canadian Christian and Buddhist traditions In the first section the contributors trace the demographics and definitions of religious life in Canada The second section examines Canadian developments in Catholic religious life during the Vatican II and the post Vatican II eras A third section explores trends in contemporary Canadian religious life while the fourth section describes the consecrated life in other Canadian religious traditions The Selfless Ego Lucia Galli, Franz Xaver Erhard, 2021-05-13 The essays collected in The Selfless Ego propose an innovative approach to one of the most fascinating aspects of Tibetan literature life writing Departing from past schemes of interpretation this book addresses issues of literary theory and identity construction eluding the strictures imposed by the adoption of the hagiographical master narrative as synonymous with the genre The book is divided into two parts Ideally conceived as an introduction to traditional forms of life writing as expressed in Buddhist milieus Part I Memory and Imagination in Tibetan Hagiographical Writing centres on the inner tensions between literary convention and self expression that permeate indigenous hagiographies mystical songs records of teachings and autobiographies Part II Conjuring Tibetan Lives explores the most unconventional traits of the genre sifting through the narrative configuration of Tibetan biographical writings as liberation stories to unearth those fragments of life that compose an individual s multifaceted existence This volume is the first to approach Tibetan life writing from a literary and narratological perspective encompassing a wide range of disciplines themes media and historical periods and thus opening new and vibrant areas of research to future scholarship across the Humanities The chapters in this book were originally published as two special issues of Life Writing The Middle Way, 1995 Tricycle, 2005 Seeing the Way, 1989 Plant Lives Ellison Banks Findly, 2008 This book examines for the first time those threads in Indian thought that present a prolife view of plants Using texts from Vedic Hindu Jain and Buddhist traditions the author argues that there is strong support in early materials that plants are thought to be alive to be sentient and have the one sense of touch to feel pleasure and pain to have an interior consciousness and to be bearers of karma Moreover while plants are traditionally thought to be of tamasic quality with their immobility and dullness they are sometimes described as sattvic with their calmness even mindedness and service to others In fact the author argues plants are frequently used to provide a model for the practiced ascetic in that they bend but don t break with the wind aren t distracted when buzzed by a mosquito and flourish in their steadfastness Given the theoretical discussion of plants within the range of sentient being the book then focus on the intimate life humans have with plants Texts devoted to botany medicine law art literature and religion for example depict human conversation with trees humans marrying trees and humans delineating their responsibilities for the well being of plants in the greatest detail Most difficult is the problem of eating and in that ahimsa or non violence towards plants would be the ideal in the extreme vegetarianism shows up the compromise that is made once plants are brought into the sentient realm Finally the author explores the founding premises of several current environmental leaders and movements in India that focus on plants e g tree protection tree planting seed saving biodiversity to examine whether contemporary plant oriented ecological activism in India reflects older traditional ideas about plants Asking whether new Hindu Jain or Buddhist movements reflect respective older ideas the author finds that contemporary Indian practices remain on the whole authentic reflections of their older roots Bibliography of Southeast Asia Kim See Ch'ng,2003-06-18 TheBibliography of Southeast Asia A Decade of Selected Social Science Publications in the English Language 1990 2000 comprises 6 521 entries of published works The selection broadly represents the documentation of the political economic and social and cultural processes of one of the most interesting eras of the previous millennium No Ajahn Chah Dhamma Garden,1994 The quotations in this collection have been taken from Bodhinyana A taste of freedom A still forest pool Samadhibhavana Seeing the way Living dhamma Food for the heart and Venerable father a life with Ahjahn Chah Some quotations come from a personal collection hitherto unpublished Phra Thēpwēthī (Prayut),2018 On Buddhist teaching on merit making for better life and society The Way it is Sumedho (Ajahn.),1991 Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1995 Dictionnaire pâli-français du bouddhisme originel Michel Henri Dufour,1998 3000 entr es en pali et un index fran ais pour la recherche des termes doctrinaux de l enseignement du Bouddha Les enseignements bouddhistes ou Dhamma ont leur version la plus ancienne en pali Vajra Bodhi Sea ,1998 Phra Thēpwēthi,Prayut,1998 On Buddhism as a foundation of science and their relationship Phra Thēpwēthī (Prayut),1996 Phra Thēpwēthī (Prayut),1998 Ilāṅkai Tēciya Nūrpattiyal ,2011 No Ajahn Chah Chā,1994 The quotations in this collection have been taken from Bodhinyana A taste of freedom A still forest pool Samadhibhavana Seeing the way Living dhamma Food for the heart and Venerable father a life with Ahjahn Chah Some quotations come from a personal collection hitherto unpublished
