Venus Castina Clarence Joseph Bulliet, 1928 1933 reprint of the 1928 ed T p verso Venus Castina Clarence J. Bulliet, 1956 Cross Dressing, Sex, and Gender Vern L. Bullough, Bonnie Bullough, 1993 Not only surveys cross dressing and gender impersonation throughout history and in a variety of cultures but examines the medical biological psychological and sociological findings that have been presented in modern scientific literature Venus Castina; Famous Female Impersonators, Celestial and Human. With Illus. by Alexander King Clarence Joseph Bulliet, 1956 Venus Castina Clarence Joseph Bulliet, 1933 Venus Castina Clarence Joseph Bulliet, Alexander King (Chemiker), 1928 Gender Pioneers Philippa Punchard, 2022-08-26 A vital book JUNO ROCHE Beautifully illustrated and fascinating MEG JOHN BARKER Fun and fact filled SUSAN STRYKER This inspiring collection of illustrated portraits celebrates the lives of influential transgender non binary and intersex figures throughout history Showcasing the diversity of gender identities and expressions that have existed in all cultures alongside developments from recent years the extraordinary stories in this book highlight the achievements and legacies of those who have fought to be themselves whatever their gender From activists soldiers and historical leaders through to pirates actors and artists this book explores the life and times of over fifty trans and intersex trailblazers in their fight for equality acceptance and change Poignant educational and empowering these are the gender pioneers everyone needs to know about Wide-Open Town Nan Alamilla Boyd, 2005-04-13 Traces the history of gay men and lesbians in San Francisco from the turn of the century when queer bars emerged in San Francisco s tourist districts to 1965 when a raid on a drag ball energized the gay community Includes excerpts from oral histories of lesbians and gay men who have lived in San Francisco since the 1930s Cruising the Library Melissa Adler, 2017-04-03 Cruising the Library offers a highly innovative analysis of the history of sexuality and categories of sexual perversion through a critical examination of the Library of Congress and its cataloging practices Taking the publication of Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick s Epistemologies of the Closet as emblematic of the Library s inability to account for sexual difference Melissa Adler embarks upon a detailed critique of how cataloging systems have delimited and proscribed expressions of gender sexuality ethnicity and race in a manner that mirrors psychiatric and sociological attempts to pathologize non normative sexual practices and civil subjects Taking up a parallel analysis Adler utilizes Roderick A Ferguson s Aberrations in Black as another example of how the Library of Congress fails to account for and thereby buries difference She examines the physical space of the Library as one that encourages forms of governmentality as theorized by Michel Foucault while also allowing for its utopian possibilities Finally she offers a brief but highly illuminating history of the Delta Collection Likely established before the turn of the twentieth century and active until its gradual dissolution in the 1960s the Delta Collection was a secret archive within the Library of Congress that housed materials confiscated by the United States Post Office and other federal agencies These were materials deemed too obscene for public dissemination or general access Adler reveals how the Delta Collection was used to regulate difference and squelch dissent in the McCarthy era while also linking it to evolving understandings of so called perversion in the scientific study of sexual difference Sophisticated engrossing and highly readable Cruising the Library provides us with a critical understanding of library science an alternative view of discourses around the history of sexuality and an analysis of the relationship between governmentality and the cataloging of research and information as well as categories of difference in American culture Sex and Sex Worship (phallic Worship) Otto Augustus Wall,1920

Queer/Adaptation Pamela Demory,2019-02-15 This collection of essays illuminates the intersection of queer and adaptation Both adaptation and queerness suffer from the stereotype of being secondary to identify something as an adaptation is to recognize it in relation to something else that seems more original more authentic Similarly to identify something as queer is to place it in relation to what is assumed to be normal or straight This ground breaking volume brings together fifteen original essays that critically challenge these assumptions about originality authenticity and value The volume is organized in three parts The essays in Part I examine what happens when an adaptation queers its source text and explore the role of the author screenwriter director in making those choices The essays in Part II look at what happens when filmmakers push against boundaries of various kinds time and space texts and bodies genres and formats And the essays in Part III explore adaptations whose source texts cannot be easily pinned down where there are multiple adaptations and where the adaptation process itself is queer The book includes discussion of a wide variety of texts including opera classic film genre fiction documentary musicals literary fiction low budget horror camp classics and experimental texts providing a comprehensive and interdisciplinary introduction to the myriad ways in which queer and adaptation overlap Man and His World Baker Brownell,1929 Sex and Sex Worship Otto Augustus Wall,1922 Man and His World: Five arts Baker Brownell,1929 Mattachine Review ,1963 Five Arts ,1929 The Atlantic Monthly ,1928 The Cumulative Book Index ,1930 Bookseller and Print Dealers Weekly ,1928 The Bookman ,1929
