Tense Situations:

The Expression of Time Wolfgang Klein, Ping Li, 2009-03-26 Time is the most fundamental category of human cognition and action and all human languages have developed many devices to express it These include verbal categories such as tense and aspect but also adverbials particles and principles of discourse organisation This book is intended as a tutorial for the study of how time is expressed in natural languages Its chapters take the reader through a number of foundational issues such as the various notions of time and the various means to express it other chapters are devoted to more specific questions such as the acquisition of time its modelling in formal semantics and in computational linguistics or how its expression can be empirically investigated

Tenses in Vergil's Aeneid Suzanne Maria Adema, 2018-12-24 The narrative style of the Aeneid suggests immediacy and involves the reader while at the same time both narrator and reader know what the outcomes of the story will be In Tenses in Vergil's Aeneid Narrative Style and Structure Suzanne Adema investigates the role of the Latin tenses in this presentational style Adema presents a framework to analyze and describe the use of tenses in Latin narrative texts from a linguistic and narratological point of view The framework concerns the temporal relations between a narrator and the states of affairs in his story on the sentence level discourse modes on the global text level and narrative progression on the level of narrative and descriptive sequences

Task-based grammar teaching of English Susanne Niemeier, 2017-10-23 The focus on communication in TBLT often comes at the expense of form In this book the task based approach is enhanced and coupled with insights into cognitive grammar an approach which sees grammar as meaningful The book shows how grammar teaching can be integrated into a communicative lesson in a non explicit way i e by the backdoor The learners are involved in situations that they may also encounter outside their classrooms and they are given communicative tasks they are to work on and solve usually with a partner or in small groups What teachers need to invest for preparing such lessons is their own creativity as they have to come up with communicative situations which guide the learners into using a specific grammatical structure The book first discusses the didactic and the linguistic theories involved and then translates these theoretical perspectives into actual teaching practice focusing on the following grammatical phenomena tense aspect modality conditionals passive voice prepositions phrasal verbs verb complementation pronouns and articles
