Teaching Clyde Edgerton Yvonne Mason, 2009 This is an introduction to the literature of contemporary American writer Clyde Edgerton A North Carolina native Edgerton has been compared to Mark Twain for his easy humorous style which is based in oral tradition Like Twain and other humorous writers Edgerton's work often contains both biting satire and exploration of very large questions about the human condition The book contains an overview of each of his novels and his memoir in addition to offering critical commentary on theme craft and structure Pedagogical support is offered with specific strategies that will encourage authentic engagement and learning Teachers will find specific companion pieces of literature for introducing Edgerton's vivid and challenging work This book presents the case for including more of Clyde Edgerton's work in our secondary and college English language arts classrooms as a means of revitalizing curricula and challenging the ways we traditionally think about teaching

A Web of Words Richard J. Gray, 2007 Helps readers understand how any literary tradition involves an open conversation between its texts a web of words that stretches from the local to the transnational This book charts 3 different intertextual practices involving writings both within and outside the South

Vietnam and the Southern Imagination Owen W. Gilman, 1992 Much recent fiction from the American South has spotlighted the American ordeal in Vietnam and a generation of southern writers has been imaginatively preoccupied with ironic parallels that rise out of the Vietnam experience and their own region's tragic past This stimulating study of American cultural history discovers the powerful and intriguing links It shows how profoundly the Vietnam experience has penetrated the imaginations of some of America's most acclaimed writers and how their compulsive sense of southern history unites their vision with the history of the Vietnam War Set against the backdrop of their homeland Vietnam reveals striking parallels Works by a profusion of southern writers have disclosed this astonishing connection in their heritage James Webb Bobbie Ann Mason Jayne Anne Phillips Clyde Edgerton Madison Smartt Bell Barry Hannah Winston Groom Gustav Hasford Harry Crews Larry Brown Sydney Blair Pat Conroy David Huddle Yusef Komunyakaa and Walter McDonald have found in Vietnam many provocative echoes of fundamental issues that first came to a head in the American Civil War Out of the past the issue of race and the dedication to the land remain distinct themes in contemporary southern fiction about Vietnam This absorbing study of cultural echoes that have charged the creative imaginations of fifteen southern writers unites shades of the southern past with the reality of the American present Both periods have evinced an alarming impulse toward violence In this context James Dickey's Deliverance although not a novel about Vietnam becomes a paradigm of force and southern violence It serves to reveal the modern southern storyteller's imaginative vision of violence both past and present Whether writing of soldiers at war or of the tumult at home whether expressing the persisting anxiety about race relations or sustaining the community through storytelling southern writers have found in Vietnam a weirdly revelatory mirror of their own cultural heritage

Southern Writers Bear Witness Jan Nordby Gretlund, 2018-07-15 Fourteen Southern storytellers reveal their influences methods and daily routines and struggles with the writing process Jan Nordby Gretlund has been studying the literature of the American South for some fifty years and his outsider's perspective as a European scholar has made him an intellectually acute witness of both the literature and its creators. Whether it is their language and reflexive storytelling or the craft and techniques by which writers transform life and experience into art that fascinates Gretlund, elements of their fiction led to his interviews with the fourteen storytellers featured in Southern Writers Bear Witness. Gretlund believes a good interview will always reveal something about a writer's life and character details that can inform a reading of that writer's fiction. The interviewer's task, according to Gretlund, is to supply the reader with some of the sources and experiences that inspired and shaped the fiction. Through his conversations, Gretlund also occasionally elicits the subjects' reflections on other writers and their work to discover affiliations, lines of influence, and divergences, and he also emphasizes the enduring power of their work. His interviews with Eudora Welty and Pam Durban uncover strong family and community experiences found at the core of their fiction. Gretlund also turns conversations to the craft of writing: writers' daily routines and specific problems encountered in their work, such as Clyde Edgerton's struggle with point of view. In other exchanges, he investigates distinctive elements of a writer's work, such as violence in Barry Hannah's fiction and religious faith in Walker Percy's. Still other conversations, such as his with Josephine Humphreys, touch on the pressures and opportunities of publishing and its influence on the writer's work. Taken together, these authors' insights on life in the South provide a fascinating window into the creative process of storytelling as well as the human experiences that fuel it. A foreword by Daniel Cross Turner, author of Southern Crossings: Poetry, Memory, and the Transcultural South and co-editor of Undead Souths: The Gothic and Beyond in Southern Literature and Culture and Hard Lines: Rough South Poetry, is also included. Featured authors: Pat Conroy, Pam Durban, Clyde Edgerton, Percival Everett, Kaye Gibbons, Barry Hannah, Mary Hood, Josephine Humphreys, Madison Jones, Martin Luther King Sr., Walker Percy, Ron Rash, Dori Sanders, Eudora Welty.
