The Practice of Creativity George M. Prince, 2012-06-01 Every meeting leader has faced groups that stagnate creatively or worse turn acrimonious a dullness or negativity stemming from the group's inability to pursue ideas productively and beyond their obvious limits The Practice of Creativity offers a bold and time tested approach to this problem an approach both dependable and dynamic one that uses a unique method of metaphorical thinking to stimulate creative response Written by the former president of Syntectics Inc this book provides detailed instructions on how to use a method already proven successful in many organizations including some of the largest and most successful in the world It explores the process of facing and understanding problems eliminating inadequate ideas and unifying the entire group to concentrate its collective intelligence and imagination on fresh solutions The leader's role is also discussed Showing leaders not only how to enhance and encourage imagination and flexibility but to insure that the personal interactions remain open and constructive that the discussion retains healthy momentum and that the fear of being wrong will not inhibit open creative expression An invaluable book for business government and other organizations The Practice of Creativity is unique in the field of meaningful communications George Prince was the co founder and president of Syntectics Inc Educated at Exeter and at Williams College he lived in Winchester Massachusetts until his death in 2009 at age 91 His work has appeared in many prominent publications including the Harvard Business Review which lists his article on running meetings as one of its all time most requested reprints

The Practice of Creativity George M. Prince, 1969 Creating with Others Shaun McNiff, 2003-09-16 Do you believe that life within an organization means death to the creative process That creativity is the exclusive province of artistic types Wrong Shaun McNiff shows how we can all cultivate the special kind of creative energy that is generated by people working together in groups whether in the workplace or other cooperative communities wherever individuals come together to pursue a common goal through dialogue interaction and teamwork Creating with Others is designed to address group creativity in both theory and practice McNiff draws examples from the creative arts as well as from organizational life and everyday work situations He shows how leaders can be facilitators of creative teamwork and how artists and other creative people can collaborate fruitfully with others The book includes exercises and questions that can be used in courses informal discussion groups and interactive e groups It will also help individual readers ranging from beginners to artists seeking inspiration to reflect upon their personal relationship with creativity Readers will find that they are never alone in the creative process Creativity is the basic interplay of life and we establish a vital link to its power through engagements with others
