Bengal,1883 The City Record New York (N.Y.),1904 Coal and Coal Trade Journal ,1907 Underclass John Welshman,2006 Who are those at the bottom of society There has been much discussion in recent years on both Left and Right about the existence of an alleged underclass in both Britain and the USA It has been claimed this group lives outside the mainstream of society is characterised by crime suffers from long term unemployment and single parenthood and is alienated from its core values In Underclass John Welshman shows that there have always been concerns about an underclass whether constructed as the social residuum of the 1880s the problem family of the 1950s or the cycle of deprivation of the 1970s There are marked differences between these concepts but also striking continuities Indeed a concern with an underclass has in many ways been as long as an interest in poverty itself This book is the first to look systematically at the question providing new insights on contemporary debates about behaviour poverty and welfare reform
