collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen's model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed

The New Testament for Learners Henricus Oort, Isaac Hooykaas, 1900 The Practice of Jesus William W. Clark, 1952* On the Origin of Christian Scripture David Trobisch, 2023 Comparing the Canonical Edition to other second century publications on Jesus David Trobisch sees the New Testament as an enlarged revision of an older publication attributed to Marcion This perspective provides new answers to the origin of the Johannine corpus the synoptic parallels and the authorship of the letters of Paul

The Drama of Doctrine Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2005-01-01 Observing a strange disappearance of doctrine within the church Kevin Vanhoozer argues that there is no more urgent task for Christians today than to engage in living truthfully with others before God He details how doctrine serves the church the theater of the gospel by directing individuals and congregations to participate in the drama of what God is doing to renew all things in Jesus Christ Taking his cue from George Lindbeck and others who locate the criteria of Christian identity in Spirit led church practices Vanhoozer relocates the norm for Christian doctrine in the canonical practices which he argues both provoke and preserve the integrity of the church's witness as prophetic and apostolic Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1909 The Arena, 1896 The Twilight of Christianity Harry Elmer Barnes, 1929 Finding God in All Things Michael J. Himes, Stephen J. Pope, 1996 These essays deal with four major themes the relationship between belief and unbelief the connection between religion and science the interpenetration of theology and spirituality and the nature and value of higher education within the Catholic context themes that reflect the persistent quest to discern the presence and action of God within the multiple dimensions of human existence
