The Practice of Pleasure Brenda Jackson, Penguin Books Staff, Ronald L McDonald, 1976-07-06     The Practice of Pleasure D. Michael J. Harris, 1976     The Practice of Pleasure Harris, Michael, 1976     Foucault's Critical Ethics Richard A. Lynch, 2016-09-05 The central thesis of Foucault's Critical Ethics is that Foucault's account of power does not foreclose the possibility of ethics on the contrary it provides a framework within which ethics becomes possible Tracing the evolution of Foucault's analysis of power from his early articulations of disciplinary power to his theorizations of biopower and governmentality Richard A Lynch shows how Foucault's ethical project emerged through two interwoven trajectories analysis of classical practices of the care of the self and engaged practice in and reflection upon the limits of sexuality and the development of friendship in gay communities These strands of experience and inquiry allowed Foucault to develop contrasting yet interwoven aspects of his ethics they also underscored how ethical practice emerges within and from contexts of power relations The gay community's response to AIDS and its parallels with the feminist ethics of care serve to illustrate the resources of a Foucauldian ethic a fundamentally critical attitude with substantive but revisable values and norms grounded in a practice of freedom

Being for Beauty Dominic McIver Lopes, 2018-09-13 No values figure as pervasively and intimately in our lives as beauty and other aesthetic values They animate the arts as well as design fashion food and entertainment They orient us upon the natural world And we even find them in the deepest insights of science and mathematics For centuries however philosophers and other thinkers have identified beauty with what brings pleasure Concerned that aesthetic hedonism has led us to question beauty s significance Dominic McIver Lopes offers an entirely new theory of beauty in this volume Beauty engages us in action in concert with others in the context of social networks Lopes s network theory explains the social dimension of aesthetic agency the tie between beauty and pleasure the importance of disagreement in matters of taste and the reality of aesthetic values as denizens of the natural world The two closing chapters shed light on why aesthetic engagement is so important to quality of life and why it deserves and gets lavish public support Being for Beauty offers a fresh contribution to aesthetics but also to thinking about metanormativity the metaphysics of value and virtue theory

Nicholas,2021-06-07 In Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas argues that Eros is the final rejection of an alienated life in which humans are prevented from developing their human powers Eros in contrast is an overflowing of acting into new realities and new beauties a world in which human beings extend their powers and senses Nicholas uniquely interprets Alasdair MacIntyre s Revolutionary Aristotelianism as a response to alienation defined as the divorce of fact from value However this account cannot address alienation in the form of the oppression of women or people of color Importantly it fails to acknowledge the domination of nature that blackens the heart of alienated life Alienation must be seen as a separation of the human from nature Nicholas turns to Aristotle first to uncover the way his philosophy embodies a divorce of human from nature then to reconstruct the essential elements of Aristotle s metaphysics to defend a philosophical anthropology based on Eros Love and Politics Persistent Human Desires as a Foundation for Liberation presents a critical theory that synthesizes MacIntyre s Revolutionary Aristotelianism Frankfurt School Critical Theory and Social Reproduction Theory It will be of great interest to political theorists and philosophers
