Time Of The Uprooted:

The Time of the Uprooted Elie Wiesel, 2007-02-06 Gamaliel Friedman is only a child when his family flees Czechoslovakia in 1939 for the relative safety of Hungary For him it will be the beginning of a life of rootlessness disguise and longing Five years later in desperation Gamaliel s parents entrust him to a young Christian cabaret singer named Ilonka With his Jewish identity hidden Gamaliel survives the war But in 1956 to escape the stranglehold of communism he leaves Budapest after painfully parting from Ilonka Gamaliel tries unsuccessfully to find a place for himself in Europe After a failed marriage he moves to New York where he works as a ghostwriter living through the lives of others Eventually he falls in with a group of exiles including a rabbi a mystic whose belief in the potential for grace in everyday life powerfully counters Gamaliel s feelings of loss and dispossession When Gamaliel is asked to help draw out an elderly disfigured Hungarian woman who may be his beloved Ilonka he begins to understand that a real life in the present is possible only if he will reconcile with his past

Post-deconstructive Subjectivity and History Aniruddha Chowdhury, 2013-09-19 In Post Deconstructive Subjectivity and History Aniruddha Chowdhury argues that deconstruction is not only not a dissolution of subject as it is often opined but an affirmation of the singular ethical subject and singular history singularity conceived as alterity difference and non identity Part of the emphasis of the singular history is to conceive the historical relation as figural and as one of repletion with difference One of the distinctive aspects of the book is that it not only focuses on the tradition of phenomenology but also extends deconstruction to critical theory and postcolonial theory Through his intimate reading of the canonical texts of the Continental philosophical tradition phenomenology and critical theory and postcolonial thought Chowdhury illuminates pertinent issues in Continental thought and postcolonial theory
