The Veiled Web Catherine Asaro, 2022-09-27 A near future layering of East and West of religion and technology and of love and its loss all woven into an intriguing tapestry Diana Gabaldon bestselling author of the Outlander series Winner of the Homer Award for Best Science Fiction Novel A renowned prima ballerina Lucia del Mar is far more comfortable expressing herself through dance than with words Shy and introverted she spends most of her spare time on her laptop Still Lucia's job forces her out of her comfort zone which is how she winds up at a White House reception where she meets Rashid al Jazari the wealthy CEO of a multinational corporation Although attracted to him Lucia can't help but feel awkward and shrugs off their encounter as a one time event Not realizing he feels a similar attraction she never imagines Rashid will seek out her performances he is the last person she expects to see when her dance company travels to Italy Their reunion takes an even more unexpected turn when they're both drugged and kidnapped Although they overcome their abductors it leaves them stranded in North Africa For her own safety Lucia agrees to marry Rashid at least for the time being As she recovers at his family compound in Morocco reeling from their brush with danger she struggles to fit into a culture she knows nothing about and to deal with her growing feelings for Rashid At the same time at his secret office there Rashid is developing a dramatic leap forward in artificial intelligence combined with virtual reality He finds himself plunged into a fight for control of his work against powerful international forces and caught in the middle Lucia is swept into that battle A terrific novel ripping a path from today's headlines to tomorrow's realities Robert J Sawyer Nebula Award winning author

Lives of Circumcised and Veiled Women Debangana Chatterjee, 2023-08-11 The book unravels the politics of representation and the process of exoticising women's bodies through the prism of external gaze and knowledge production It brings out the intricacies of representational discourses around cultural practices of female circumcision FC female genital cutting FGC and Islamic veiling Focusing on crucial international legal texts and national legislation the book gives an overview of the cultural nuances in FC FGC and juxtaposes it with the Indian variation khafz The author studies the international veiling narratives that conjure up a fractured discourse containing aspects of colonialism Islamophobia and Islamic fashion and maps them with the regional variations of Islamic purdah in India The volume explores the cultural practice of khafz and purdah through narratives in India portraying how representational factors from international discourses reflect on the Indian context and vice versa Amid the world of binaries and polarised opinions the book offers a nuanced analysis of the space in between characterised by narratives from women By situating women's narratives in relation to family community state and international politics the book explores the global Indian interplay of discourses on FC FGC and Islamic veiling This volume will be of interest to scholars students and readers of gender studies feminism cultural and religious studies sociology South Asian studies and International Relations

The Stained Glass Window David Levering Lewis, 2025-02-11 At once narrative history family chronicle and personal memoir a luminous work of investigation and introspection Wall Street

Journal National Humanities Medal recipient and two time recipient of the Pulitzer Prize David Levering Lewis's own family history that shifts our understanding of the larger American story Sitting beneath a stained glass window dedicated to his grandmother in the Atlanta church where his family had prayed for generations preeminent American historian David Levering Lewis was struck by the great lacunae in what he could know about his own ancestors He vowed to excavate their past and tell their story There is no singular American story Yet the Lewis family contains many defining ones David Levering Lewis's lineage leads him to the Kings and Belvinses two white slaveholding families in Georgia to the Bells a free persons of color slaveholding family in South Carolina and to the Lewises an up from slavery black family in Georgia Lewis's father John Henry Lewis Sr set Lewis on the path he pursues introducing him to W E B Du Bois and living by example as Thurgood Marshall's collaborator in a key civil rights case in Little Rock In The Stained Glass Window Lewis reckons with his legacy in full facing his ancestors and all that was lost all the doors that were closed to them In this country the bonds of kinship and the horrific fetters of slavery are bound up together The fight for equity the loud echoes of the antebellum period in our present and narratives of exceptionalism are ever with us in these pages so too are the voices of Clarissa Isaac Hattie Alice and John They shaped this nation and their heir David Levering Lewis's chronicle of the antebellum project and the subsequent era of marginalization and resistance will transform our understanding of it Du Bois Reiland
