artist and evaluates many of the numerous attempts to solve the mysteries presented by the Spaniard's paintings. These questions are considered in the final essay 'Velázquez today and tomorrow' which is published here for the first time. Two themes unite the essays: Velázquez was the court painter to Philip IV and the changing relationship between painter and patron provides the framework for interpreting the artist's career. The centerpiece of this relationship is Velázquez's Las Meninas, which is the subject of two long articles: the now classic 'On the Meaning of Las Meninas' (1978) and 'Las Meninas as a masterpiece' (1999). The second theme is the problem of attributions and the related question of Velázquez's innovative technique. Velázquez was not a prolific painter. As the supply of securely attributed works is now mostly in museums and as the price of great pictures continues to reach new heights, questions of authenticity become increasingly contentious. In this book, Brown considers the problem in its widest dimensions and participates in the debate about individual attributions. Jonathan Brown is regarded as a leading specialist on Spanish painting of the Golden Age and on the Spanish master Diego Velázquez. Among his many books are Velázquez: Painter and Courtier (1986) and Velázquez: The Technique of Genius (1998) with Carmen Garrido. His studies of art at the European courts include A Palace for a King: The Buen Retiro and the Court of Philip IV with John H. Elliott (rev. ed. 2003). Brown is Carroll and Milton Petrie Professor of Fine Arts, Institute of Fine Arts, New York University.
