Venetian Views:

Venetian Views, Venetian Blinds Manfred Pfister, Barbara Schaff, 1999 Half a millennium of English and American fantasies of Venice this collection of essays by leading critics in the field explores the continued and continuing fascination of travellers writers artists theatre workers and film makers with the amphibious and ambiguous city in the lagoon There is hardly another place in Europe that has become so much of a palimpsest inscribed with the fantasies the dreams and nightmares of generations of foreigners and this turns Venetian Views Venetian Blinds into a particularly pertinent case study of the ways cultural difference within Europe is experienced enacted and constructed The essays range across five centuries from the Renaissance to our postmodern present from Shakespeare and his contemporary Coryate to recent novels detective fiction and films and in contrast to previous studies focussing on the Grand Tour they emphasise more recent developments and how they continue or disrupt traditional ways of perceiving or being blind to Venice Paris Grant Allen, 1900 Green Worlds of Renaissance Venice Jodi Cranston, 2019-03-04 From celebrated gardens in private villas to the paintings and sculptures that adorned palace interiors Venetians in the sixteenth century conceived of their marine city as dotted with actual and imaginary green spaces This volume examines how and why this pastoral vision of Venice developed Drawing on a variety of primary sources ranging from visual art to literary texts performances and urban plans Jodi Cranston shows how Venetians lived the pastoral in urban Venice She describes how they created green spaces and enacted pastoral situations through poetic conversations and theatrical performances in lagoon gardens discusses the island utopias found invented and mapped in distant seas and explores the visual art that facilitated the experience of inhabiting verdant landscapes Though the greening of Venice was relatively short lived Cranston shows how the phenomenon had a lasting impact on how other cities including Paris and London developed their self images and how later writers and artists understood and adapted the pastoral mode Incorporating approaches from eco criticism and anthropology Green Worlds of Renaissance Venice greatly informs our understanding of the origins and development of the pastoral in art history and literature as well as the culture of sixteenth century Venice It will appeal to scholars and enthusiasts of sixteenth century history and culture the history of urban landscapes and Italian art Visions of Venice in Shakespeare Laura Tosi, Shaull Bassi, 2016-03-03 Despite the growing critical relevance of Shakespeare's two Venetian plays and a burgeoning bibliography on both The Merchant of Venice and Othello few books have dealt extensively with the relationship between Shakespeare and Venice Setting out to offer new perspectives to a traditional topic this timely collection fills a gap in the literature addressing the new historical political and economic questions that have been raised in the last few years The essays in this volume consider Venice a real as well as symbolic landscape that needs to be explored in its multiple resonances both in Shakespeare's historical context and in the later tradition of reconfiguring one of the most represented cities in Western culture Shylock and Othello are there to remind us of the dark sides of the myth of Venice and of the inescapable fact that the issues raised in the Venetian plays are tremendously topical we are still haunted by these theatrical casualties of early modern multiculturalism Painting and Celebrated Painters, Ancient and Modern; Including Historical and Critical Notices of the Schools of Italy, Spain, France, Germany, and the Netherlands Lady Marian Jervis,1854 Summary of and Index to Waagen Algernon Graves,1912 The Nineteenth Century and After ,1906 The Travel Writings of Marguerite Blessington Aneta Lipska,2017-06 This book derives from the conviction that Marguerite Blessington 1788 1849 merits scholarly attention as a travel writer and thus offers the first detailed analysis of Blessington s four travel books A Tour in The Isle of Wight in the Autumn of 1820 1822 Journal of a Tour through the Netherlands to Paris in 1821 1822 The Idler in Italy 1839 and The Idler in France 1841 It argues that travelling and travel writing provided Blessington with endless opportunities to reshape her public personae demonstrating that her predilection for self fashioning was related to the various tendencies in tourism and literature as well as the changing aesthetic and social trends in the first half of the nineteenth century Venice and the Cultural Imagination Michael O'Neill,Mark Sandy,Sarah Wootton,2015-10-06 In the era of the Grand Tour Venice was the cultural jewel in the crown of Europe and the epitome of decadence This edited collection of eleven essays draws on a range of disciplines and approaches to ask how Venice s appeal has affected Western culture since 1800 Art and Letters ,1888 Painting and Celebrated Painters, Ancient and Modern Lady Marion Campbell Jervis-White-Jervis,1854 The Connoisseur ,1905 Description and Historical Catalogue of the Pictures in the National Gallery Wornum,1874 Catalogue of the Pictures in National Gallery with Biographical Notices of the Painters Wornum,1875 Descriptive and Historical Catalogue of the Pictures in the National Gallery, Foreign Schools National Gallery (Great Britain),1875 *Descriptive and Historical Catalogue of the Pictures in the National Gallery ...
