

The National Advertising Division (NAD) of the National Programs provides independent self-regulation and dispute resolution services, guiding the truthfulness of advertising across the U.S. NAD reviews national advertising in all media and its decisions set consistent standards for advertising truth and accuracy, delivering meaningful protection to consumers and leveling the playing field for business.

NAD cases can be initiated through NAD's independent reviewing of advertising claims or through "challenges" to advertising claims filed by competitors, consumers, or public interest groups. This digest includes excerpts from key telecommunications cases. Each case involved consideration of the claims made in the advertising and the supporting evidence provided by the advertiser.

Compliance with NAD decisions is voluntary. Nevertheless, NAD enjoys a high rate of compliance. Advertisers that either refuse to participate in the self-regulatory process or do not implement the NAD recommendations are referred to appropriate government agencies such as the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).
