Thoughts For Times Like These:

Times Like These Jayne Wills, 2024-10-11 In the wake of her husband's sudden death Annie is left with two young children and a heart full of unanswered questions. Determined to rebuild her life she channels her grief into a new passion gardening. Starting with small plots for friends and neighbours she soon cultivates a thriving market garden business in the magical setting of a walled garden on her friend Matt's farm. Matt has always harboured feelings for Annie but her lingering love for her late husband makes their situation complex. As they navigate the challenges of working side by side an unimaginable crisis grips the world the pandemic. Life as they know it is disrupted and a critical illness threatens to shatter their newfound stability leaving one to shoulder the weight of two businesses and the care of the children. Set against the backdrop of our recent history this powerful and engaging story explores themes of love loss and resilience in turbulent times. Will Annie and Matt find solace and a chance for love amidst the upheaval. Or will the weight of the past and the uncertainty of the future prove too much to bear.

No Time Like the Present Karen Roggenkamp, 1990 In Times Like These Nellie Letitia McClung, 2022-08-01 Nellie Letitia McClung's In Times Like These is a compelling work that intricately weaves the tapestry of early 20th century Canadian society providing a keen social commentary on issues such as women's rights political activism and the changing roles of women in a rapidly modernizing world. McClung's literary style is characterized by its evocative imagery and poignant dialogue effectively capturing the spirit of her time and the voices of those who yearned for change. Through her vibrant characters and deft narrative she illustrates the tumultuous era marked by the suffragette movement and the quest for social justice inviting readers to engage with its rich cultural and historical context. Nellie Letitia McClung was not only a celebrated author but also a fierce advocate for women's suffrage in Canada. Born in 1873 her experiences as a teacher mother and public speaker deeply informed her writing. Her commitment to social reform and her understanding of the struggles faced by women in her community motivated her to craft works that would resonate with and inspire her readers establishing her as a pivotal figure in Canadian literature and feminism This book is highly recommended for readers interested in social history women s rights and the literary movements of the early 20th century In Times Like These is not just a narrative it is a powerful call to action that resonates today making it an essential read for those who value the ongoing pursuit of equality and justice Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1897 Bulletin National Catholic Welfare Council (U.S.),1921 Journal of American Folklore ,1911 American Illustrated Magazine ,1912 Printers' Ink ,1919 The Works of J.
