Good Economics for Hard Times Abhijit V. Banerjee, Esther Duflo, 2019-11-12 The winners of the Nobel Prize show how economics when done right can help us solve the thorniest social and political problems of our day Figuring out how to deal with today's critical economic problems is perhaps the great challenge of our time Much greater than space travel or perhaps even the next revolutionary medical breakthrough what is at stake is the whole idea of the good life as we have known it Immigration and inequality globalization and technological disruption slowing growth and accelerating climate change these are sources of great anxiety across the world from New Delhi and Dakar to Paris and Washington DC The resources to address these challenges are there what we lack are ideas that will help us jump the wall of disagreement and distrust that divides us If we succeed history will remember our era with gratitude if we fail the potential losses are incalculable In this revolutionary book renowned MIT economists Abhijit V Banerjee and Esther Duflo take on this challenge building on cutting edge research in economics explained with lucidity and grace Original provocative and urgent Good Economics for Hard Times makes a persuasive case for an intelligent interventionism and a society built on compassion and respect It is an extraordinary achievement one that shines a light to help us appreciate and understand our precariously balanced world

Historical Perspectives on the American Economy Robert Whaples, Dianne C. Betts, 1995-05-26 This book is a student reader of the key topics in American economic history

Real World Economics Edward Fullbrook, 2007 Economics is extremely sick It is so locked in its past that nearly all of its introductory textbooks are modelled on one that appeared in 1948 The discipline cannot continue in its autistic state much longer This book takes you to the heart of a fiery and many faceted debate It is comprised of 66 articles that have been selected based on their importance to the reform movement and for their accessibility to the general reader Real economic problems concern real people so their analysis must be made intelligible to an educated general public if real democracy is to function All economists must learn to live without the belief that there is only one right way of describing and explaining reality This requires economists to begin the development of an ethos of honesty regarding the limitations of their chosen approaches

Economics, Economic Stories For Undergrads Annavajhula J. C. Bose, 2022-05-10 Economics is the strangest and most dubious as also frustrating animal of social sciences and humanities The debate on what it is and what its strengths and weaknesses are in understanding and changing the economy and society for the better is never ending This book cuts through this noise for econ undergrads with social concerns It is crafted to be stuffed with peripatetic hops skips and intellectual and emotional jumps about the nature and character of the brain circuits of economics in terms of its methodological political sociological anthropological historical feminist ethical ecological spiritual literary technical corporate and other underpinnings Diverse stories are told as alerts or nudges for the undergrads who as aspirant youth have in general hyperbolic discounting attitude towards social change The mind and heart of the undergrad reading this book will hopefully be ignited so as to endeavour to find out the purpose of economic education and how economics should be learnt in order to rectify the failures of our current socio economic system The seriously academic undergrad may also be inspired to pursue the long range objective of doing integrated studies and research for maximised understanding and holistic policy making which is of course easier to say than do Microeconomics Sem-I- PBU Mr. TR Jain, Mr. RK Uppal & Mr. AS Sandhu, List of References in Economics 2 Edmond Earl Lincoln,1920 Economics Edward Thomas Devine,1898 The Principles of Economics, with Applications to Practical Problems Frank Albert Fetter,1904
