Western Calligraphy:

The Student's Guide to Western Calligraphy Joyce Irene Whalley, 1984 0000000000No.39, 2017-01-23 Wang Wenhsing is an internationally renowned modernist writer who has long been regarded by Taiwan writers as a bellwether of literary aesthetics His reputation rests on his devotion to an innovative literary language and writing style demonstrated primarily in his novels His persistent pursuit of an ideal style has challenged standard aesthetic views of Chinese literary language and conventional reading strategies He views writing much as he does painting music or any other art form while acknowledging the importance of content he foregrounds the form His fictional works therefore are not only pieces of creative writing but also creative artworks each word and sign should be appreciated like a musical note in a song or a brush stroke in a painting This ideal pushes him constantly to search out a more precise method to describe a specific subject and each new method he develops is added to the reservoir of Chinese rhetoric Due to his peculiar approach he writes extremely slowly During the past three decades he has been able to write only thirty some characters a day To date he has published twenty three short stories one novella three novels the second novel is in two volumes one one act play three volumes of essays and numerous poems prose works translations and pieces of criticism

The Materiality of Writing Christian Mosbæk Johannessen, Theo van Leeuwen, 2017-09-18 This book examines the materiality of writing It adopts a multimodal approach to argue that writing as we know it is only a small part of the myriad gestures we make practices we engage in and media we use in the process of trace making Taking a broad view of the act of writing the volume features contributions from both established and up and coming scholars from around the world and incorporates a range of methodological and theoretical perspectives from fields such as linguistics philosophy psychology of perception design and semiotics This interdisciplinary framework allows readers to see the relationships between writing and other forms of trace making including architectural drawings graphic shapes and commercial logos and between writing and reading with a number of illustrations highlighting the visual data used in the forms and studies discussed The book also looks forward to the future discussing digital media and new technology and their implications for trace making This pioneering volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers in multimodality literacy cognitive neuroscience design theory discourse analysis and applied linguistics

The Domain of Images James Elkins, 2018-08-06 In the domain of visual images those of fine art form a tiny minority This original and brilliant book calls upon art historians to look beyond their traditional subjects painting drawing photography and printmaking to the vast array of nonart images including those from science technology commerce medicine music and archaeology Such images James Elkins asserts can be as rich and expressive as any canonical painting Using scores of illustrations as examples he proposes a radically new way of thinking about visual analysis one that relies on an object's own internal sense of organization Elkins begins by demonstrating the arbitrariness of current criteria used by art historians for selecting images for study He urges scholars to adopt instead the far broader criteria of the young field of image studies After analyzing the philosophic underpinnings of this interdisciplinary field he surveys the entire range of images from calligraphy to mathematical graphs and abstract painting Throughout Elkins blends philosophic analysis with historical detail to produce a startling new sense of such basic terms as pictures writing and notation

The Book of Politics Michael Dutton, 2024-07-05 In The Book of Politics Michael Dutton offers an affective theorization of the political and a political theorization of affect Drawing on Western and Chinese social theory and practice Dutton rethinks Carl Schmitt's insistence that the political can be thought of only within the antagonistic pairing of friend and enemy Dutton shows how the power of the friend enemy binary must be understood by conceptualizing the political as the channeling harnessing and transforming of affective energy flows in relation to that binary Given this affective nature of politics Dutton contends that to rethink the political means moving away from a political science toward an art of the political Such an art highlights fluidity and pulls away from Eurocentric political theory requiring a conceptualization of the political as global He juxtaposes ancient Chinese cosmology medicine and Maoism against the monuments of early capitalist modernity such as the Crystal Palace and the Eiffel Tower to highlight the differences in political investments and intensities From the Chinese revolution to the global rise of right wing movements Dutton rethinks politics in the contemporary world
