teachers and committed to a great nation's vision of a new education that would uplift the lives of all of its people. In this illuminating collection of essays, Yongxin shares his most personal thoughts, reminiscences, and insights on the new education of China. These richly diverse, deeply felt writings shed light on a wide range of educational issues, including the pivotal role of education in our professional lives and personal happiness; the challenge of implementing new reforms in our schools and our homes; the importance of having good teachers, supportive families, and inspiring role models; the ways we define success, featuring 31 secrets of successful people; the transformative power of reading, writing, dreaming, and doing; the educational opportunities in sports, literature, arts, and other cultural pursuits; the social, political, and economic goals of the new education and why it's so crucial to China's future. The book also includes Yongxin's reflections on his own educational journey, from absorbing the wisdom of the ancient masters to facing the challenges of new educational reforms. Along the way, he shares his honest opinions on hot-button subjects like social networking, educational psychology, school financing, and other issues. Most importantly, his inspiring words and enthusiasm teach us how to use this new education to open minds, raise spirits, and expand opportunities for China for its people and for the pure joy of learning. Life is education, and education is life, he writes. Life cannot be separated from education.

Zhu Yongxin is a member of the National People's Congress NPC Standing Committee, vice chairman of the China Association for Promoting Democracy (CAPD), and vice president of the Chinese Society of Education (CSE). He also serves as a professor and PhD supervisor at Soochow University. A sponsor of the New Education Experiment in China, Professor Zhu has won several awards for his influential work, including 60 Great Contributors in China's Education of 60 Years (2009), 30th Anniversary of Reform and Opening Up Person of the Year in China's Education Area (2008), Top 10 News Figures in China's Reform (2007), and Top 10 Elites in China's Education (2006).
