World Food Summit Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1997-01-01 Ahead of the Curve? Louis Emmerij,Richard Jolly,Thomas G. Weiss,2001-07-22 Ideas and concepts are arguably the most important legacy of the United Nations Ahead of the Curve analyzes the evolution of key ideas and concepts about international economic and social development born or nurtured refined or applied under UN auspices since 1945 The authors evaluate the policy ideas coming from UN organizations and scholars in relation to such critical issues as decolonization sustainable development structural adjustment basic needs human rights women world employment the transition of the Eastern bloc the role of nongovernmental organizations and global governance The authors find that in many instances UN ideas about how to tackle problems of global import were sound and far sighted although they often fell on the deaf ears of powerful member states until it was apparent that a different approach was needed The authors also identify important areas where the UN has not stood constructively at the fore Technical Background Documents: 12. Food and international trade. 13. Food security and food assistance. 14. Assessment of feasible progress in food security. 15. Technical atlas Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1996 The World Food Summit technical background documents have the purpose of providing all partners in the preparation and follow up of the Summit with the factual information and lessons from experience that can support orientations and decisions for improved world food security Publisher s description Attaining the World Food Summit's Objectives Through a Sustainable Development Strategy ,1999 Technical Background Documents Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1996 The World Food Summit technical background documents have the purpose of providing all partners in the preparation and follow up of the Summit with the factual information and lessons from experience that can support orientations and decisions for improved world food security Publisher s description World Food Summit World Food Summit,1996 Technical Background Documents ,1996

The United Nations and Civil Society Nora McKeon,2013-07-04 The UN is able to recognize key global challenges but beset by difficulties in trying to resolve them In this it represents the current global political balance but is also the only international institution that could move it forward Civil society can be a catalyst for this kind of change In this book Nora McKeon provides a comprehensive analysis of UN engagement with civil society The book pays particular attention to food and agriculture which now lie at the heart of global governance issues McKeon shows that politically meaningful space for civil society can be introduced into UN policy dialogue The United Nations and Civil Society also makes the case that it is only by engaging with organizations which legitimately speak for the poor targeted by the Millennium Development Goals that the UN can promote equitable sustainable development and build global democracy from the ground up This book has strong ramifications for global governance civil society and the contemporary debate over the future of food
