Multilingualism at Work Bernd Meyer, Birgit Apfelbaum, 2010 This volume focuses on work situations in Europe North America and South Africa such as academic medical and public sector or business settings in which participants have to make constant use of more than one language to cooperate with partners clients or colleagues Central questions are how the social and linguistic organization of work is adapted to the necessity of using different languages and how multilingualism impinges on the communicative outcome of different types of discourse or genres Thus the authors are all interested in multilingual practices at work which is to say how different forms of multilingual communication are managed flexibly adjusted to acquired and or improved in a given workplace setting that often calls for particular implicit or explicit language policies Thus this volume contributes to the study of workplace communication in a globalized world by drawing on different types of authentic data
