Social Problems A Case Study Approach:

Social Problems Norman Allan Dolch, Linda Bell Deutschmann, Helen K. Wise, 2007-01-01 Social Problems explores the consequences of symbolic interactionism in society a theory which contends that people attach meanings to symbols such as language or gestures and base their behaviors on their interpretations of these meanings Norman A Dolch Linda Deutschmann and Helen Powell compile a number of critical and innovative essays that explore different aspects of society including mental illness race relations terrorism and family life Social Problems Norman Dolch, Susan Cruise, 2019-08-15

Social Problems KENDALL HUNT PUB CO, Norman Allen Dolch, Polson Edward Clayton, Ree Wells-Lewis, Wise Helen K, 2011-08-17 Extraordinary Behavior Dennis L. Peck, Norman Allan Dolch, 2001 Annotation Analyzes illustrates and evaluates contemporary social problems using a symbolic interaction and case study approach SOCIAL PROBLEMS, 2023 SOCIAL PROBLEMS, 2023 Social Problems Corey Dolgon, Chris Baker, 2010-08-03 p This book empowers the powerless and gives sociologists and their students a new vantage point for understanding Judith Blau University of North Carolina Chapel Hill In Social Problems A Service Learning Approach authors Corey Dolgon and Chris Baker integrate an innovative case study approach into a comprehensive introduction that helps students understand how they can address social problems in their communities by applying basic theories and concepts Contributor to the SAGE Teaching Innovations and Professional Development Award Extraordinary Behavior Dennis L. Peck, Norman A. Dolch, 2000-10-30 This unique collection of case studies introduces readers to many of the common yet extraordinary social problems in contemporary American society Employing a symbolic interaction approach to the case studies the authors identify the origins of the problems define the issues and explore the outcomes and potential remedies The case studies themselves introduce readers to the very personal side of the problems as the emotions actions and perceptions of the subjects are revealed and analyzed The problems studied here are organized into three categories health related issues family issues and behavior beyond the boundaries and include many problems that often receive too little attention in the existing literature making this book an original and timely contribution Each of the three sections is preceded by a general review of the chapters to follow and offers readers a prelude to the exploration of human thought language and behavior captured and illustrated in the case studies In the first section of the book problems covered include suicide anorexia nervosa alcohol and drug abuse and AIDS STDs The second section covers teenage mothers domestic violence divorce and poverty child support and deadbeat dads and homelessness The last section focuses on sexual harassment equal protection and racial exclusion prostitution career criminals mass murder and serial killers This book represents a fresh new approach and a welcome addition to the study of social problems in America today Embedded Case Study Methods Roland W. Scholz, Olaf Tietje, 2002 Eleven methods of knowledge integration are presented which can be used for case representation case evaluation and case development and transition Democracy and Governance for Resourcing the Commons Janet McIntyre-Mills, Norma R. A.

Romm, Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, 2019-06-11 This book promotes the well being of the commons through representation and accountability through monitoring from below in order to operationalize engagement This book views the commons as a legal concept a transformative governance concept and a basis for systemic ethics The chapters focus on practical responses to address complex problems that comprise many interrelated variables and are perceived differently by stakeholders with different values and life experiences By considering these different stakeholders the goal is to highlight ways to regenerate and invigorate employment opportunities The book identifies pathways towards ethical vocational education to enable lifelong engagement by active citizens which requires action learning to address areas of perceived policy concern Throughout the chapters in this book the authors discuss transformative research and its implications on stakeholders They focus on re presentation and its implications for thinking and practice One author makes the case for fostering non anthropocentric approaches to ethical development In addition the chapters cover case studies including governance challenges associated with water management using a mixed method approach and also production of mushrooms in collaboration with coffee growers in Jakarta The book focuses on ways to de colonialise knowledge formation in public policy and makes the case for an alternative approach to governance and democracy that takes into account a range of local people s perspectives
