Society Today:

English Fanfiction and its Influence on today's Society Katharina Ananda Kriz, 2023-01-06 Fanfiction is a phenomenon that has influenced and is influenced greatly by our society. In this book, the influence of English fanfiction today is examined with focus on the social, psychological, and political impact of the fan-written texts. The definition of fanfiction, its origin, and history are discussed, and fanfiction terminology and websites are explained. The book focuses on who reads and writes fanfiction and how physical and mental illnesses, as well as gender identity and sexuality, are portrayed in fanfiction. It also aims to answer the question of how teenagers are influenced by fanfiction and how it impacts their development. It furthermore shows what we as a society can learn through reading fanfiction and interacting with the community, including second language acquisition and fanfiction in relation to classroom learning. Further topics include fanfiction as a form of imaginary play and defining fanfiction as a form of activism. This work was first written as a research paper, the so-called VWA, as part of the final high school exam in Austria. After receiving an award from the Education Directorate of Vorarlberg, Austria, in June 2022 for the best research paper in the category Social Sciences Economics, the author chose to publish the extended version of the paper as a book.

Turkish Culture in German Society Today David Horrocks, Eva Kolinsky, 1996. A literary and cultural study combining social and political analysis along with a close reading of Turkish-born writer Emine Sevgi Zdamar in order to present the current situation of the Turkish minority living in modern Germany. The ten essays and conclusion include an interview and work sample from Zdamar's critically acclaimed novel The Role of Technical Standards in Today's Society and in the Future (United States, Congress, House, Committee on Science, Subcommittee on Technology, 2001).

Integrating Immigrants in Today's Globalised Society Joana Duarte, 2009-11-16. Thesis M.A. from the year 2006 in the subject Pedagogy Intercultural Pedagogy, grade 1, University of Hamburg, Institut fuer Allgemeine Erziehungswissenschaft, language English, abstract. Since the end of the Second World War, migratory movements have increased within Europe, while trans-oceanic mobility has decreased. Almost forty years have passed since then, and the question arises of how Portuguese immigrants and the host community co-exist in Germany. This is going to be the subject investigated in this paper. To answer this question, social psychological theories dealing with in- and outgroups, self-regard, social identity, stereotypes, and prejudice will be mobilised alongside certain governmental trends on immigration issues. An ideological typology will be suggested and later discussed in relation to Germany and its Portuguese immigrants. The relationship between these two ethnic groups will also be subjected to empirical research by means of a questionnaire consisting of two different scales. The first was developed on the basis of work carried out first by Berry and later by Bourhis during the eighties and nineties in Canada and comprises four different acculturation orientations specified into several items. In cross-cultural psychology, the focus on the phenomena resulting from the contact between groups of individuals from different cultural backgrounds and the subsequent adaptations of their original culture patterns is a relative recent trend.

Nevertheless it has been used intensely in the last two decades and several models have been suggested for the study of the acculturation strategies of both immigrants and host communities in multicultural societies The most frequent is the bi dimensional model extended by Bourhis and his co workers from Berry s original research which will here be applied to Portuguese immigrants and their relation to the German host community The second part of the questionnaire contains an experimental scale designed to highlight some of the pragmatic manifestations of the acculturation process between these two groups What exactly happens where and how often are questions that we will try to answer through examination of the answers given by the participants A statistical analysis will lead us to the discussion of results and will hopefully help to define the acculturation tendencies of these two groups towards each other and provide some sort of framework to enable us to understand the choices made by Portuguese immigrants and their host community in their co existence in Germany

The Information Society Robert Hassan,2008-11-03 What are we to make of the information society Many prominent theorists have argued it to be the most profound and comprehensive transformation of economy culture and politics since the rise of the industrial way of life in the 18th century Some saw its arrival in a positive light where the dreams of democracy of connectivity and efficiency constituted a break with the old ways But other thinkers viewed it more in terms of the recurrent nightmare of capitalism where the processes of exploitation commodification and alienation are given much freer rein than ever before In this book Robert Hassan a prominent theorist in new media and its effects analyses and critically appraises these positions and forms them into a coherent narrative to illuminate the phenomenon Surveying the works of major information society theorists from Daniel Bell to Nicholas Negroponte and from Vincent Mosco to Manuel Castells The Information Society is an invaluable resource for understanding the nature of the information society as well as the meta processes of neoliberal globalisation and the revolution in information technologies that made it possible
