The Derby Game Ian Collis,2023-02-27 Today high profile derby games trigger a febrile atmosphere and the odd brawl But Derby Shrovetide Football was truly wild One mob pitted its wits and muscle against the other Players broke down walls dived into freezing rivers and crawled through sewers Thousands of fans filled the streets and civilised behaviour was suspended But why did this game achieve national notoriety and then disappear in 1846 The Derby Game charts the century long struggle to kill a tradition and the fanatical resistance of players and supporters It is a fascinating tale of mobs and magistrates bobbies and brickbats dragoons and defiance The book then explores the rise of the local derby as football fever grips the UK It covers the early clashes of local rivals in the Victorian football hotspots tracing the roots of some time honoured rivalries and separating the friendly derbies from the hostile Discover how the derby became part of a global language as Britain exported football to the world
