Drama Team Sketchbook Alison Siewert, 2003-12-15 We need drama Drama helps us see ourselves It makes space for the parts of life that are ambiguous thrilling painful uncertain It says things to us that we desperately need to hear and it says them intuitively by pointing rather than by explaining Drama helps us see God The woman at the well comes to know God because she admits who she really is and in the very next turn she hears Jesus speak who he really is Drama speaks prophetically Theater can ask hard questions by pointing to them on the stage and we can say things in the context of theatrical dialogue that we would struggle to speak in any other context Drama shows in a world that tells It makes big ideas concrete helping us understand ideas like hypocrisy forgiveness sacrifice and love We need drama in our ministries in our churches and on our college campuses We need drama that helps us tell the story of Jesus so that people can hear and respond In this sketchbook Alison Siewert offers twelve scripts of Gospel stories from the nativity to the resurrection that will help those who have ears to hear the Word of God

Perspectives Michael Horton, Frederica Mathewes-Green, Brian D. McLaren, Erwin Raphael McManus, Andy Crouch, 2011-01-04 What should the church look like today What should be the focus of its message How should I present that message We live in as pivotal and defining an age as the Great Depression or the Sixties a period whose definition say some cultural observers includes a warning of the church's influence The result A society measurably less religious but decidedly more spiritual Less influenced by authority than by experience More attuned to images than to words How does the church adapt to such a culture Or should it in fact eschew adapting for maintaining a course it has followed these last two millennia Or something in between These are exactly the questions asked in The Church in Emerging Culture by five Christian thinker speaker writers each who advocate unique stances regarding what the church's message should be and what methods should be used to present it as it journeys through this evolving postmodern era The authors are Andy Crouch Re Generation Quarterly editor in chief Michael Horton professor and reformed theologian Frederica Mathewes Green author commentator and Orthodox Christian Brian D McLaren postmodernist author pastor and Emergent senior fellow Erwin Raphael McManus author and pastor of the innovative and interethnic L A based church Mosaic Most unique about their individual positions is that they're presented not as singular essays but as lively discussions in which the other four authors freely and frequently comment critique and concur That element coupled with a unique photographic design that reinforces the depth of their at once congenial and feisty conversation gives you all access entrance into this groundbreaking discourse What's more general editor Leonard Sweet author of SoulTsunami and AquaChurch among several other acclaimed texts frames the thought provoking dialogue with a profoundly insightful erudite introductory essay practically a book within a book The Church in Emerging Culture is foundational reading for leaders and serious students of all denominations and church styles Culture Making \(Volume 2 of 2\) \(EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition\) , "A" is for Abductive Leonard I.
