KJ Lindholm-Leary

Waterloo Station:

The London of Sherlock Holmes Thomas Bruce Wheeler,2011-09-27 All serious Sherlock Holmes enthusiasts want to visit London to see the places mentioned in the Great Detective's adventures The e book version of See the London of Sherlock Holmes allows enthusiasts to visit London from their home computers or internet connected TVs This is achieved by hyperlinking the latitude longitude addresses in the book to the Street View feature in Google Maps The map coordinates are also GPS addresses for those who visit London with hand held GPS devices The book groups the 400 Sherlock Holmes sites by the nearest underground or railway station Entering GPS addresses after arriving at the station will generate turn by turn directions from one Sherlock Holmes site to another Six walking tour maps are also included These are not the usual rambling tours but walks in Holmes and Watsons footsteps Finally for those with a statistical bent the book lists 454 characters named in the book and statistically analyzes their titles and occupations

Light Construction Terence Riley,Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),1995 Transparency and luminescence have reemerged in the vocabulary of architecture and light and lightness have become key concepts for a significant number of contemporary architects as well as artists who create installations Recent work by these designers recalls the use of transparent materials in early modern structures but they have introduced new ideas and technical solutions In doing so they have redefined the relationship between the observer and the structure by interposing elements that both veil and illuminate In this architecture of lightness buildings become intangible structures shed their weight and facades become unstable dissolving into an often luminous evanescence The 33 projects illustrated in this book exemplify this emerging sensibility which is examined in a penetrating essay by Terence Riley chief curator of the department of architecture and design at The Museum of Modern Art that places the new work in a broad historic and cultural perspective More than 30 architects are represented in this international selection and it includes a broad range of building types scales and technologies from the small Leisure Studio created by a group of young Finnish architects to Renzo Piano's enormous Kansai International Airport in Japan Also shown are the Goetz Collection in Munich by Herzog de Meuron the Fondation Cartier in Paris by Jean Nouvel the ITM Building in Matsuyama Japan by Toyo Ito and a set design by Tod Williams and Billie Tsien Each project includes a description by Terence Riley or Anne Dixon
